WILSON WARNS AGAINST TAMPERING WITH HONOR OF THE UNITED STATES

America Re-Awakened in National Spirit Through Lessons of the European War.

SPEAKS TO YOUNG WOMEN

Hundreds of Them, Dressed in Khaki and Drawn Up in Military Order at Camp.

FOR WAR-TIME TRAINING

Believes Foreign-Born Citizens Would Prove True.

Washington, May 1. — America re-awakened in national spirit, through lessons of the war in Europe, was the theme of an address by President Wilson today at the opening of the National Service School Military Encampment for young women. In concluding, the President voiced a warning that the honor and integrity of the United States cannot be tampered with.

He prayed that the country should not be drawn into war, but declared that if it should be, "in the great voice of national enthusiasm which would be raised, all the world would stand once more thrilled to hear the voice of the new world asserting the standards of justice and liberty."

Foreign-Born Citizens.

The President expressed confidence that in time of trouble the great mass of foreign born citizens of the United States would be loyal. "I never had the slightest doubt of what would happen when America called upon those of her citizens born in other countries to come to the support of the flag," he said. "Why, they will come with cheers; they will come with a momentum which will make us realize that America has once more been cried awake out of every sort of distemper and dream and distraction, and that any man who dares tamper with the spirit of America will be cast out of the confidence of a great nation upon the instant."

The President spoke before several hundred young women dressed in khaki and drawn up in military order. They will be taught first aid to the wounded, bandage making, telegraphy and other wartime arts. The encampment is being held under the auspices of the women's section of the Navy League.

Secretaries Baker and Daniels and a large group of government officials and army and navy officers were included in the audience. The President's speech followed the formal raising of an American flag over the encampment.

He said in part:

American Ideals Peculiar.

"You have come together to be prepared for any unusual duty which Americans may call upon you to perform, but what has moved you to do this? Your duty to your country. But what is the foundation of that duty? What do you conceive America to be? When you come to the last searching analysis we do not owe any duty except to those things that we believe in, and the glory of performing our duty towards America is that we believe in America; and we believe in America because—I venture to say it with entire respect for other peoples and other governments—this government was established with a special purpose such as no other government ever avowed. This government was established in order that justice and liberty might belong to every man whom our institutions could touch, and not only that justice and liberty should belong to America, but that, so far as America was concerned and her influence involved, they should be extended to mankind everywhere. So the inspiration of serving America is a very profound inspiration.

"Have you not thought what might be the outcome of this great struggle, so far as the nations already engaged are concerned? Can you imagine the great awakening that has come to a country like France, for example; how much more intensely every Frenchman and every German feels the national compulsion than he ever felt it before? How much more he feels himself, not an individual, but a fraction in a great whole? How much more his blood springs to the challenge of patriotic suggestion? He is not fighting for his own life. He is sacrificing his own life, or willing to sacrifice it, in order that a greater life than his might persist, the life of his nation. So in America, we are getting already the indirect benefit of that suggestion. We are beginning to realize how a nation is a unit, and that any individual of it who does not feel the impulse of the whole does not belong to it, and does not belong in it. * * *

"Hyphenated Americans."

"You have heard a great deal about the hyphen. I for one have never been deceived. The number of persons of really divided allegiance in this country is very small, and if I had been born in some other country I would, for one, resent the representations which have been made by those who were not the spokesmen of those for

NO INDEPENDENCE FOR PHILIPPINES

House Defeats Administration's Fight by Killing Clarke Amendment to the Senate Bill.

JONES BILL SUBSTITUTED

House Decidedly Against Setting Any Definite Time for Independence —Republicans Jubilant Over Democratic Action.

Washington, May 1.—The administration's fight for the Senate Philippines bill with its Clarke amendment authorizing independence for the islands within four years was lost tonight in the House. After voting 213 to 165 to strike out the Clarke amendment, the House by a vote of 251 to 17 passed as a substitute for the entire measure the Jones bill providing for a greater measure of self-government in the Philippines and carrying a preamble declaring the intention of the United States to grant independence ultimately but without fixing a date.

Over the heated protest of administration leaders, the House by a vote of 203 to 154, instructed its conferees not to agree to any declaration setting a definite time for granting the islands their independence. Speaker Clark named Representatives Jones, of Virginia, and Garret, of Tennessee Democrats and Towner, of Iowa, Republican, as conferees.

Now the bill goes to conference between the two houses, with the opponents of Clarke amendment satisfied that it is dead at least for this session of Congress.

The House remained in session until late tonight to take the final vote. Thirty Democrats joined the solid Republican minority in defeating the Clarke amendment, which had been given unqualified endorsement by President Wilson.

Republicans Noisily Jubilant.

It was the first marked victory of the year over any part of the President's legislative programme and the Republicans were noisily jubilant. Democrats accepted their defeat in silence.

The Democrats who voted against the Clarke amendment were: Allen, Ohio; Beakes, Michigan; Bruckner, Carew Coney, Dale, Dooling, Driscoll, Farley Fitzgerald, Flynn, Griffin, Hulbert, Maher, Patten, Riordan and Smith, New York; Coady, Maryland; Eagan, Hammill and Hart, New Jersey; Estopinal, Louisiana; Gallagher, McAndrews and McDermott, Illinois, Gallivan, Olney, Phelan and Tague, Massachusetts, and O'Shaughnessy, Rhode Island.

The first vote, taken after eight hours debate in committee of the whole, showed 193 to 151 votes against the Senate provision. Chairman Jones, of the Insular Affairs committee, then attempted to procure the adoption of substitutes extending the time limit for freeing the Filipinos, but they were quickly voted down. Then, without further debate on other sections of the State bill, Mr. Jones offered his mes-

CONFEREES REACH A BASIS OF AGREEMENT

Hold All Day Session on Army Reorganization Bill

Senate Conferees Agree to Yield on Number of Standing Army if House Will Accept Expansion System Proposed.

Washington, May 1.—Hope for an agreement in conference on all the army reorganization bill seemed brighter tonight after an all day session of the conference committee, in which a basis for negotiation of differences between the Senate and House on the Republican army was reached. Senate conferees agreed to yield on the proposed standing army of 250,000 men and to accept a peace strength of 180,000 men, provided the House would accept the expansion system of organization in the Senate bill.

Under this system the regular army could be increased in time of conflict to 220,000 or more. House conferees tentatively agreed to this proposition.

Although the conferees are exerting every possible effort to reach a complete agreement, some of them fear that some disputed points will have to be referred back to the Senate and House for further instructions. Senate conferees still are holding out for the Federal volunteer army, as well as their proposed system of federalization of th National Guard, which House leaders insist eventually will be eliminated.

The matter of a government nitrate plant has not been reached by the conferees, but its opponents regard it as certain that it will be stricken from the bill.

GERARD CONFERENCE WITH EMPEROR WILLIAM

Basis for Less Apprehension as to Future German-American Relations, Says Correspondent.

BACK IN BERLIN TODAY

Reply to Note May be Expected With Little Delay, But Its Character Not Stated.

Berlin, via London, May 1.—Future German-American relations probably can be looked forward to with less apprehension.

The Associated Press is permitted to make this statement, although dispatches bearing on the nature of the German reply to the American note respecting submarine warfare have been stopped by the censorship.

The deliberations at great headquarters have been concluded and Ambassador Gerard will leave this evening for Berlin, arriving here Tuesday afternoon.

The German reply is expected with little delay, but it is considered undesirable that preliminary indications of the nature of the note should be published abroad.

Discussions over the answer to the American note continued Sunday at great headquarters without a conclusion being reached, according to advices to the Lokal Anzeiger.

The newspapers for the most part still refrain from comment. Theodor Wolff, in the Tageblatt; George Bernhard, in the Vossische Zeitung; Count von Reventlow, in the Tages Zeitung, and the Taglische Rundschau, however, give some consideration to the subject.

Herr Bernhard considers the situation still grave and voices a warning against too great optimism. He declares that the final decision "depends solely" on President Wilson.

"There would be no greater mistake," he says, "than the expectation that the American Congress might reach a different decision than the President. It is not doubted now that Congress stands behind President Wilson; the German leaders who have the task of framing the German answer must remember this.

"We could understand any decision, no matter what it is, under the self-understandable condition that it preserves Germany's dignity."

No Half-Way Measures.

But there must be no half-way measures, says Herr Bernhard, and the decision reached must create a final and enduring status. He refers to the fact that the offensive has been the guiding spirit of Prussio's and Germany's military operations since the time of Frederick the Great, and concludes:

"And if our statesmen, in reaching a decision in the light of their information on all the conditions involved, believe that they must do so in the face of the uncertainty as to what the purposes of the other party are, they will have to take into consideration the question whether in such cases it is not wise to take the lead themselves rather than be forced to play to the lead of the other players."

Herr Wolff's article refers again to the hopes of Germany's enemies of a rupture between the United States and Germany and to the dissenting voice of Gustave Herve (the French anti-

RIOTING LASTS THREE HOURS IN PITTSBURGH

5,000 Westinghouse Strikers Break Into Steel Plants.

Attack Employes and Effect Damage of Several Hundred Dollars—Most Serious Disorder Since the Strike Began.

Pittsburg, May 1.—Angered because workmen refused to join their ranks, 5,000 striking employes of the Westinghouse plants forcibly entered the mills of four big steel companies in Rankin and Braddock late today, attacked employes and caused property damage amounting to several hundred dollars. One rioter was arrested but hundreds of strikers attacked the police with stones and rescued the prisoner. The rioting lasted three hours and was the most serious since the strike began.

The plants entered were those of the Edgar Thompson Works, of the Carnegie Steel Company, the American Steel & Wire Company, the McClintic-Marshall Construction Company and the Standard Chain Works. District Attorney Jackson has ordered the saloons in Braddock, which had been permitted to re-open three hours before the riot took place, to be closed indefinitely.

The disturbance followed a parade of 5,000 strikers from East Pittsburg. Going to the plant of the Edgar Thompson Works in North Braddock the marchers battered down heavy iron gates and, sweeping ten policemen before them, forced their way into the plant. Other strikers blocked the tracks of the Pittsburg & Lake

FLAMES SWEEPING BUSINESS PART OF CITY OF RALEIGH

Raleigh, N. C. May 2 ,2:30 A. M.,—Fire originating in a wooden livery barn at 1 o'clock tonight has gotten beyond control of firemen and is sweeping the business section of this city.

The Job P. Wyatt hardware establishment already is in ruins, and other large buildings are threatened.

The Durham fire department has been sent for to assist in fighting the flames.

3:00 A. M. — The fire is said now to be under control. Wires have been put out of commission, and the morning newspaper office is in darkness.

TROOPS NOT TO BE WITHDRAWN UNTIL BRIGANDAGE ENDS

Wilson's Purpose Remains Unaltered, Despite Renewed Request of Carranza.

ARREDONDO CALLS AGAIN

Further Instructions Sent to Scott and Funston, After Conference at White House.

Washington, May 1.—President Wilson has not altered his purpose to keep American troops in the border region of Mexico until brigandage has come to an end. After a brief conference at the White House today, Secretary Baker prepared further instructions for Major Generals Scott and Funston sought by the officers as a result of their conference with General Obregon.

The message went forward tonight. Its contents was not revealed, but both Secretary Lansing and Secretary Baker said there had been no change in the administration's policy. Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador designate, called on Secretary Lansing during the day to renew his argument in favor of the early withdrawal.

He followed closely the line taken by General Obregon in his exchange of views with Generals Scott and Funston. He was informed that the State Department would not take up any diplomatic discussion of this subject as urged by General Carranza, until after the military conference at El Paso had concluded.

Later Mr. Arredondo explained the feeling of his government; that the American expedition has already accomplished its real purpose—the elimination of Villa and his adherents—and that longer occupation of Mexican territory by American troops was serving only to undermine the control of the defacto government over the general situation in Mexico.

Troops Menace to Peace.

"We are satisfied that Villa bandits are no longer to be looked upon as a menace to the peace of the country," he said. "The American troops should be withdrawn to restore tranquility among the people. It is believed that Villa has either been killed or driven to refuge where he will no longer molest either Americans or Mexicans. The bandits have been well dispersed and their forces materially reduced.

"There is, however, an increasing suspicion among some of our people that the American troops are remaining in

SURRENDER OF ALL REBELS IN DUBLIN IS LONDON REPORT

Nearly 500 of Those Taken Prisoners Have Been Sent to the British Capital.

OF 1,000 TAKEN SUNDAY

Rebellious Ones in Irish Country Districts Handing in Arms, Says Official Statement.

London, May 1. — All the rebels in Dublin have surrendered and those in the country districts are doing likewise, according to an official statement issued this evening. The statement says:

"All the rebels in Dublin have surrendered and the city is reported quite safe. The rebels in the country districts are surrendering to the mobile columns.

"There were 1,000 prisoners in Dublin yesterday, of whom 489 were sent to England last night.

"It is reported from Queenstown that hopes were entertained that arms would be handed in today in the city of Cork.

"During the night of April 30-May 1, the rebels in Enniscorthy made an offer to surrender their leaders and their arms on condition that the rank and file be allowed to return to their homes. They were informed that the only terms that could be entertained were unconditional surrender. These terms were accepted by them at 6 o'clock this morning. It was reported later that the rebels were surrendering today on these terms."

Dublin, May 1. (Via London)—A return to normal conditions is being accomplished gradually in Dublin, and it is now possible to give the first complete account of the happenings of the last week. Hitherto, news of the Dublin uprising has reached the outside world in fragmentary form, owing to the interruption of telegraphic communication, the censorship and the frequent conflicts of statement.

When the irreconcilable opponents of British rule in Ireland proclaimed the republic, their move was looked on generally as a mere display of fanaticism. It was soon found, however, that it was no mere demonstration, but an outbreak which had behind it a fair organization and sufficient force to strangle the life of the capital and compel the authorities to send for military assistance from England. At no time, however, did the military or civil authorities consider a rebellion a menace to the government, nor did they have any fears as to their ability to cope with it quickly, as soon as its extent became apparent.

NO WORD FROM GERARD YET RECEIVED AT WASHINGTON

Washington, May 1.—The State Department has had no commmunication from Ambassador Gerard since he sent word of his leaving to confer with Emperor William at gran dheadquarters.

Secretary Lansing today described the situation an unchanged, wit hthe United States awaiting the next word from Germany.

THAT 15,000 TONS OF DYES NOT YET IN SIGHT

And There Seems Little Prospect That it Will be Seen.

Nothing Definite Has Yet Been Done by Germany to Permit the Shipment of the Promised Materials to America.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, May 1.—Notwithstanding assurances given the Washington government by Germany that 15,000 tons of dyestuffs had been released and would be allowed to proceed to this country for American consumption, it became known today that nothing definite has been done by Germany to permit the shipment of these dyes and there is some doubt whether the deal will be put through.

Practically every cotton manufacturer in North Carolina has inquired of Senator Overman about these dyes since the press associations carried the story announcing that the Berlin government had decided to release such a large quantity. The assurances given this government were taken in good faith, but up to the present time no definite arrangement has been made by Germany either as to the shipment or the kind of dyes that was originally intended to be shipped.

The Wilmington Hosiery Company, of Wilmington, the Proximity Mills, of Greensboro, and he Holt properties at Burlington were among those who wrote Senator Overman to inquire into the matter. The Juniors Senator took the question up with Secretary of State Lansing and today received a letter which gave no definite assurances that the dye would be shipped at all.

"You are informed," said Secretary

BOMBARDMENT BY GERMANS RENEWED

Following Repulse by the French of Powerful Attacks on Dead Man Hill and Cumieres.

SUMMARY OF WAR NEWS

Austro-Hungarians Forced to Withdraw from Trenches by Counter Attack by Russians in the South — Fighting Elsewhere.

The repulse by the French of powerful German attacks around Dead Man's Hill and of counter attacks to the north of Cumieres has again been followed by a heavy German bombardment of these sectors and a continuation of the shelling of Cote Du-Poive and Douaumont northeast of the fortress. No fresh infantry attacks have been launched by the Germans.

In sapping operations in the Argonne forest the French were enabled by the explosion of a mine to take a portion of the crater.

Nothing of importance has occurred along the northern section of the battle front in Russia, according to Berlin, but in the south the Austro-Hungarians have been forced to withdraw before a counter attack by the Russians from trenches north of Mlynov, which they had previously captured.

The usual bombardments are in progress on the Austro-Italian front.

Gorzia has again come under the heavy fire of the Italians. In the Adamello zone the Italians are on the offensive against the Austrians at Topeto pass.

Paris reports that on the Greek frontier there have been frequent but unimportant skirmishes between Entente allies and German-Gargarian forces, whose lines are less than two-thirds of a mile from each other at certain points.

Two British war craft, the armed yacht Aegusa and the mine sweeper Nasturtium, have been sent to the bottom in the Mediterranean by coming in contact with mines.

LARGE TRANSPORT REPORTED SUNK BY GERMAN SUBMARINE.

Berlin, May 1: (via Wireless to the Associated Press)—It is reported from Saloniki that a German submarine has torpedoed a large transport off Kara Burun, ten miles east of Saloniki. This is the second instance in which a transport is reported to have been torpedoed near Saloniki.

This report is contained in a dispatch from Zurich, which credits this news to the Greek newspaper Nea Alithia of Saloniki.

BRITISH ARMED YACHT AND MINE SWEEPER SUNK BY MINES

London, May 1.—The British armed yacht Aebusa, Captain T. P. Walker, retired vice admiral, and the British mine sweeper Nasturtium, Lieut. Com. Robin W. Lloyd, struck mines in the Mediterranean and sank. The official statement announcing this adds that the captains and officers of both ships were saved. Six men are missing from the crew of the Aegusa and seven from the Nasturtium.

Remarkable Demonstration of Interest in Chapman-Alexander Revival Campaign.

AN IMMENSE AUDIENCE

Hundreds Pledge Their Lives to Christian Service in Response to Direct Appeal.

SCENE MOST IMPRESSIVE

Young People Dedicate Their Lives at Altar.

That Wilmington, the historic city of the Old North State, believes profoundly in democracy and in religion, was evident last night, when a thousand strong and stalwart men of every trade and of every profession, representing the different fraternal orders here, marched in a solid line, six city blocks in length, to the Tabernacle, for the Chapman-Alexander meetings, and at the close of the most impressive and most remarkable service of the great revival campaign, hundreds of them responded to the straightforward, clear-cut appeal of Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, to live for God and for home, and crowded around the evangelist while Mr. Charles M. Alexander, the song leader, with the mammoth choir of 800 voices, sang a Gospel hymn.

Hundreds of people had to be turned away from the service last night while as many as could find a place to sit or stand crowded into the immense building and around the doors others remained for two hours to hear the singing of the immense audience of more than 5,000 people and listen to the tender words of the evangelist as he appeared to fathers and mothers to have Christian homes and to live Christian lives for the sake of their children and urged young men and women to be good and true and to be worthy of the love of their parents.

Biggest Single Delegation.

After the delegation of fraternal men had found seats, the space reserved for them being inadequate and many of them having to go into the space for the choir, Dr. Chapman welcomed them by having the members of each order stand while Rev. M. T. Plyler called the roll. First were the Knights Templars with their brilliant uniforms, two score in number, and after them the Masons, the Odd Fellows, the Red Men, the Knights of Pythias, the Juniors, the Maccabees, the Royal Arcanum, the Elks, Woodmen. There was also a delegation of a hundred or more members of the ladies' orders in the city including the Rebekahs and the Daughters of Liberty.

"I should like to say that of all the delegations that Mr. Alexander and I have had to attend our meetings in various parts of the world," said Dr. Chapman, "this is the largest single delegation. So we shall remember this as delegation night. We are here to make this city better and in the only permanent way. The only cure for sin is by way of the Cross. We are glad to welcome you and appreciate your coming."

"Home Night" Service.

It was "Home Night" at the Tabernacle and one that those present will not soon forget. Three hundred High school students occupied seats reserved for them. Under the direction of Mr. Alexander they lifted their young voices in singing tenderly and most effectively "Ivory Palaces." Following them the vast congregation more than two-thirds of them men, fairly shook the rafters with me familiar words of "Alas! and Did My Saviour Bleed." Mr. Alexander is as adept in leading the singing of the old hymns as the new ones and there were few last night who were able to resist singing after his appeal that they let those who had stayed at home, if there were any, know that they were at the service. After the splendid singing of the hymns, the song leader closed with a hearty "Amen."

The members of the fraternal orders met at Third and Princess streets and marched in a body to the Tabernacle. Each order was represented by large delegations, The Knights Templars headed the processions, then came the Masons, the Odd Fellows, the Juniors, the Royal Arcanum, the Red Men, the Knights of Pythias and the Maccabees. Mr. W. R. Dosher was chief marshall for the procession.

A Touching Scene.

There were few dry eyes in the big assembly when 200 bright-faced young women offered themselves for any form of Christian service, even to going to foreign lands to which God might call them, and 73 young men came forward to the platform to pledge themselves to enter the Gospel ministry, if they should feel that God wanted them for this service. With tears streaming down his face, Dr. Chapman after prayers by several of the local

THE FARMERS WANT A CHANGE IN THE SIXTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

White Hall, Bladen County, N. C.
To the Editor:

I have noticed in the papers that Godwin is claiming everything—the earth, the sea, and the fishes. He is shooting high all right, but like many of his promises, his claims will never be realized.

I travel all over the lower end of the Sixth Congressional District, making the counties of Robeson, Bladen, Columbus, New Hanover and Brunswick. I am not a prophet, nor the son of a prophet, nor the seventh son of a seventh son, but I have talked to hundreds of the voters in the district and it is my firm belief that Godwin will not poll over one-fourth of the votes of the district the first day and that he will be finally defeated. He can't fool all the people all the time. The boys in the country and the one-gallus fellows have gotten on to him.

He is the first man to throw mud in the race. He has charged the other candidates with collusion, and the farmers know it isn't so.

The boys in the woods want a change. W. A. PIERCE.

TWELVE-INNING CLASH ENDS IN FIVE TO THREE VICTORY FOR VIRGINIANS, THEIR FIRST OF THE SEASON

(Special Star Telegram.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., May 1.—Five to three was the final court in which Hopewell took her first game of the season from the Tar Heels today. It was a twelve inning clash in which both teams counted a couple in the earlier sessions and then came a set-to wi' Hopewell scoring in the tenth, when Leake lost the plate and walked three and one man counted.

After two were down in their half, however, Eisel tripled and with one on tied the score again. It was in the twelfth that after two were out and two on Barnett rattled the boards in right center and two counted. There were fielding sensations galore and Alexandria, in right for the visitors, staged a great running dash full into the fence to recover a drive for one of the greatest catches seen on the local lot in moons.

Fast doubles were the order of the day with the Tar Heels who more than once nipped a score by fast fielding and accurate pegging.

Local Wrestler Says Match May Be Arranged for May 16.

Announcement was made yesterday by Fritz Hanson that he will probably take on the famous Doctor Roller in a wrestling match to be staged at the Academy of Music Tuesday night, May 16, all the details have not yet been settled.

Mr. Hanson received a letter from Roller yesterday to the general effect that he will be able to come here about the middle of the month. Although Hanson is not as heavy as Roller, it is believed that a satisfactory handicap match can be arranged.

MAY DAY FEATURED BY NEW LABOR DISORDERS

Water Traffic Situation at New York Improved, However.

Strike of Engineers in Harbor Brings Concessions From Boat Owners —Big Garment Workers' Strike Next.

New York, May 1.—May Day, featured here by a monster parade of Union Workers, also was markd by the beginning of new labor disorders as well as the settlement of several strikes in the Metropolitan district. Following the parade the garment workers held a mass meeting preparatory to the calling of a strike tomorrow, following the lockout by the manufacturers last week.

The day began with a strike of engineers and firemen on tugboats and lighters in New York harbor and adjacent waterways, but by nightfall many of the owners had acceded to the demands for increased wages, and the water traffic situation was much improved.

Most of the railroad companies operating tug boats granted the demands of the men, but several of the commercial companies still held out. Negotiations continued tonight and a settlement was expected.

About a thousand dock laborers went on strike in Brooklyn for an increase in wages. The strike of 2,000 jewelry workers in progress for three months has been settled.

The workers received an eight-hour day and other concessions.

The terms of the agreement between the 175,000 coal miners of the anthracite field and the operators were announced, and it is expected the miners will approve the result of the negotiations at their meeting at Pittsville, Pa., tomorrow.

Efforts of a band of anarchists to hold a meeting in Manhattan gave the police their only work of the day. Three anarchists weer arrested and the meeting was dispersed.

Benjamin Schlesinger, president of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, announced tonight that a general strike of th e60,000 cloak makers will be called Wednesday morning.

THAT 15,000 TONS OF DYES NOT YET IN SIGHT

Lansing, "that the details of the shipments have not yet been arranged nor has the character of the goods to be included been determined."

While Germany may yet comply with her promise to permit the dyes to come forward, it is realized by the State Department that she has yet to take the first steps to make such a shipment possible.

It is learned, too, from another source that there is little prospect of Germany ever making good her promise for such a large shipment. Men in close touch with the German dyestuff situation made the statement today that it was a 10 to 1 shot that there would be no such shipment as 15,000 tons for many months to come, unless there is an early ending of the war.

MRS. PICKETT IS EATING SUPPER; SLEEPS GOOD TOO

Mrs. Julia Pickett now eats supper.

The tenor of this statement has little weight with those that are in perfect health. With the less fortunate, however, its meaning is strong.

Mrs. Pickett is the wife of C. W. Pickett, of Route No. 1, Durham.

How she suffered recently, as told by her husband to the Tanlac Man is: "The after effects of la grippe had her in a pretty bad way. My wife suffered terrible distress after eating. At night these pains prevented her from getting proper rest. She grew nervous and was in such shape that she couldn't do her housework. Steadily she fell off in weight and strength.

"Two bottles of Tanlac have changed the tide for her. Her appetite is good again, and she needs have no fear of after pains from eating. Her nerves have been quieted; she has gained in weight and strength, and goes about her household duties happily.

"Because Tanlac has made her a well woman she is not reluctant in expressing her good word for it, that others might be equally benefitted."

In this city Tanlac is sold exclusively by the Bellamy Drug Co., and in New Bern by the Bradham Drug Co.—adv.

RIOTING LASTS THREE HOURS I NPITTSBURGH

(Contiuned From Page One.)

Erie and the Baltimore & Ohio railroads, tieing up all traffic for nearly 30 minutes.

Crying eight hours a day, the strikers rushed through the plant. The strikers then went to the McClintic-Marshall plant. Battering open a gate, they rushed into the works, destroyed large belts, damaged machinery and upset paint over the floors in the paint department, according to the police. As the men entered the plant a whistle was blown and the workmen quit work until the strikers departed. A number of men were beaten but not seriously hurt. Two foreigners jumped into the Monongahela river, swimming to the opposite shore.

The marchers adopted similar tactics at the other plants, officials of the various concerns had learned the strikers intended marching to Braddock and Rankin and the men quit work temporarily when a signal was given indicating the strikers had entered the plants.

ASHEVILLE GETS THE CONVENTION FOR 1917

Baraca-Philathea Annual Session at Goldsboro Adjourns

Closing Session Sunday Night Featured by Address by Miss Heron, of Illinois—Chapman-Alexander Party Thanked.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Goldsboro, N. C., May 1.—Today has seen the exodus of practically all those who came here from every part of the State to attend the annual Baraca-Philathea convention, which closed its four days' session Sunday night, following a thrilling address by Miss Henrietta Heron, of Illinois, her subject being "The Organized Class and Evangelism." Asheville was selected as the meeting place for next year's convention.

Prior to adjournment, the convention adopted resolutions of thanks to the Baraca and Philathea classes of Goldsboro and the people of the city generally for the splendid manner in which the convention was taken care of. The resolutions also expressed appreciation to all those not members of the convention who had helped to make it the great success it was, including the Chapman-Alexander party, which came up from Wilmington Friday and filled an hour on the programme, inspiring and thrilling the great audience to the highest pitch of enthusiasm and consecration. In this resolution Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman is thanked for "his forceful and lucid exposition of the influence and inspiration of the Book of Books and the utter impossibility of overthrowing it"; Mr. Charles M. Alexander for the thrilling music provided Mrs. Alexander for her beautiful message portraying the far-reaching influence of the Pocket Testament League.

Following a parade by the local classes and delegates, numbering some fur or five hundred, Sunday afternoon Rev. A. D. Wolfinger, pastor of the First Reformed church, of Greensboro, delivered an address to the entire convention, his subject being "The New Challenger to Christian Forces."

At the session of Saturday night the secretary, Mr. A. R. Williams, gave out the following report pertaining to the work of the past year:

"The purpose I have in mind in giving to you these statistics which follow is two-fold: First, I want you to know our strength as we are today, and second, I want to give you some idea of the work that has been done during the past year.

"There are on file 2,050 Baraca and Philathea classes. Of these 810 are Senior Baraca classes; 840 Senior Philathea classes and 410 Junior Baraca and Philathea classes. Of the Senior classes, the Baptists have the largest number, there being 419 Baraca classes; 437 Philathea classes; 228 M. E. Philatheas; 46 Presbyterian Baraca; 53 Presbyterian Philathea; 41 M. P. Baraca; 41 M. P. Philathea; 31 Christian Baraca; 22 Christian Philathea; 10 Moravian Baraca; 12 Moravian Philathea; 17 Union Baraca; 12 Union Philathea; 9 Reformed Philathea; 3 Lutheran Baraca; 2 Lutheran Philathea.

"Of the Junior classes there are 208 Baptist; 131 M. E.; 6 Union; 31 M. P.; 8 Christians; 27 Presbyterians; 5 Moravians; 3 Reformed; 1 Friends.

"These classes represent approximately from 50,000 to 75,000 Baracas and Philatheas and possibly more. It is no small work that we are engaged in and no small force engaged in the work. There are 19 counties in the State that have county unions, and there are 28 city unions."

MR. W. H. PHILLIPS ELECTED AS MAYOR OF WHITEVILLE.

Powell and Britton Win in Fight for Town Commissionerships.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Whiteville, N. C., May 1.—In a municipal election that was hotly contested from sunrise until the close of the polls at sunset this afternoon, W. H. Phillips was today elected mayor of Whiteville over Martin H. Schulken. J. F. Walters, J. T. McKenzie and E. M. Dewey were unopposed as candidates for town commissioners and received practically the solid vote cast, while R. C. Powell and J. L. Britton received majorities over Oscar High and W. M. Spivey for the other two commissioners, Powell leading the ticket in the election.

The registration for the election today was the heaviest known in town politics for a good many years and the fight today was waged with an earnestness that was at all times on the surface.

Mr. Phillips' majority, while only 22, is generally considered as a political triumph to be coveted and the sticking qualities of Mr. Schulken's friends also come in for a large measure of commendation.

Mayor-elect Phillips and Messrs. Walters, McKenzie, Dewey, Britton and Powell were nominated after the plan of organization adopted by the retiring board, while Mr. Schulken, Messrs. High, Spivey, Walters, McKenzie and Dewey were nominated in a called convention held on the 18th of April.

HUNTING A RECTOR.

Church of Good Shepherd at Raleigh is Much Concerned.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 1.—The impending resignation of Dr. I. McK. Pittinger as rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd is giving the members of this important parish much concern. It is because of his advanced age, he being 74 years old, that he has determined to retire from the rectorship to spend his declining years in more quietude. There are efforts to induce him to retain the nominal rectorship with the addition of an assistant designed to ultimately assume the rectorship. He insists, however, that such an adjustment might make it impossible for the church to secure as capable a man as the work demands with an adjustment that would not give the new man a free hand such as would attract the best ministerial talent such as the work requires. The whole matter is to be adjusted by September 1, with the congregation in search of a rector suitable for a splendid church plant forth nearly $100,000 and a membership of about 700 communicants.

CHAPMAN-ALEXANDER PARTY AT SOUTHPORT

Profoundly Impressive Services There and at Fort Caswell

Revival Meetings Being Conducted by Rev. C. L. Evarts Have Thrilled and Aroused the Community—Good-Bye Scenes.

(Special Star Correspondence).

Southport, N. C., May 1.—Today has been one of special importance in the series of evangelistic meetings here, it being the day when the leaders of the Chapman-Alexander party visited this city, for a single service, though this embraced really two gatherings, for adults at Trinity church, Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman making the talk, and at the Baptist church, where those under 16 years met Mrs. Chas. M. Alexander.

The steamer Wilmington arrived here at noon, taking aboard a committee and with a brief stop, continued to Fort Caswell, where the Chapman-Alexander party went at once to the gymnasium building. There was held the meeting with the soldiers, Dr. Chapman making about a twenty-minute address, Mr. Alexander sang twice, and gave a few minutes to teaching the soldiers a song.

Returning to Southport on the steamer, reaching here about 1:45, there was another committee at the dock to greet the party and give a welcome to this city. As all the party reached the shore end of the dock, it was greeted with a song by the Sunbeam choir of children, 125 in number, it making a beautiful sight, as the little ones held aloft as they sang a bunch of flowers or a little Testament. The visitors greatly appreciated this welcome.

At Trinity church, people began gathering an hour and more before the time set for the service, and before the Wilmington party reached the church, it was filled to the doors. There were a number present from the country. Dr. Chapman's talk and the singing of Mr. Alexander made a deep impression on the large audience.

At the Baptist church Mrs. Alexander made a talk to the children that captivated and held their attention. She also taught them some songs, sang with them songs they had learned during the revival services.

At the completion of the services at both churches, there was a large number who followed the visitors to the boat, and bade them God-speed and sang as they said good-bye.

During the past week there have been daily meetings, afternoon and at night, which have been well attended, with close attention being given to the addresses and responses to the calls that indicated the religious sentiment governing the audiences.

With the approach to the closing of the union revival services in this city, the religious interest has deepened and increased. With his earnestness of manner and impressiveness of speech, the Rev. C. L. Evarts, leading the evangelistic forces, has been most effective in attracting and winning his hearers into taking a public stand and openly pledging themselves for Christ.

Sunday afternoon, there was the second service for men only, there being a large gathering, nearly 300, and to the call there was an immediate response and a large number went forward declaring their personal need for salvation. These large gatherings of men and their quick and sincere response to the evangelist's call, has particularly touched Mr. Evarts, who has made no effort to conceal his emotion and satisfaction in having so many men come forward to grasp his hand, and pledging themselves to a new life.

Last night the Methodist church witnessed its largest gathering, every pew being filled, with a number of chairs being brought in, between 500 and 600 being present, a number being unable to gain a seat inside. The evangelist spoke with a power and fervor that gripped the hearts of sinner and church member. There was an eager going forward to the altar when the call was made.

—Annie Virginia Elks, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Elks, died last night at 7:45 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Elks' father, Mr. W. H. Dyer, at Winter Park. Funeral services will be held at the residence this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Rev. W. Marshall Craig, pastor of the First Baptist church. Interment will be made in the Winter Park cemetery.

How Nuxated Iron Helped Me To Whip Frank Moran

Jess Willard Tells Secret of His Easy Victory. Also reveals hitherto untold secret of his great triumph over Jack Johnson; Says

IRON IS GREATEST OF ALL STRENGTH BUILDERS

Ordinary Nuxated Iron will often increase the strength and endurance of delicate, nervous folks 200 per cent. in two weeks time.

Ordinary Nuxated Iron will often increase the strength and endurance of delicate, nervous folks 200 per cent. in two weeks time.

I consider that plenty of iron in my blood is the secret of my great strength, power and endurance.

Jess Willard

SPECIAL NOTE.—Dr. E. Sauer, a well known physician who has studied widely in both this country and Europe, has been specially employed to make a thorough investigation into the real secret of the great strength, power and endurance of Jess Willard, and the marvelous value of nuxated iron as a strength builder.

New York—Upon being interviewed at his apartment in the Colonial Hotel, Mr. Willard said: "Yes, I have a chemist with me to study the value of different foods and products as to their power to produce great strength and endurance, both of which are so necessary in the prize ring. On his recommendation I have often taken nuxated iron, and I have particularly advocated the free use of iron by all those who wish to obtain great physical and mental power. Without it I am sure that I should never have been able to whip Jack Johnson so completely and easily as I did, and while training for my bout with Frank Moran, I regularly took nuxated iron, and I am certain that it was a most important factor in my winning so easily." Continuing, Dr. Sauer said: "Mr. Willard's case is only one of hundreds which I could cite from my own personal experience, which proves conclusively the astonishing power of nuxated iron to restore strength and vitality, even in most complicated chronic conditions."

Not long ago a man came to me who was nearly half a century old, and asked me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with the blood pressure of a boy of 20 and as full of vigor, vim and vitality as a young man; in fact a young man he really was, notwithstanding his age. The secret he said was taking iron—nuxated iron had filled him with renewed life. At 30 he was in bad health; at 46 careworn and nearly all in. Now at 50 a miracle of vitality and his face beaming with the buoyancy of youth. As I have said a hundred times over, iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would only throw away patent medicines and nauseous concoctions and take simple nuxated iron, I am convinced that the lives of thousands of persons might be saved who now die every year from pneumonia, grippe, consumption, kidney, liver and heart trouble, etc. The real and true cause which started their diseases was nothing more nor less than a weakened condition brought on by lack of iron in the blood. Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much or what you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while, double their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate or tincture of iron, simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron, if you want it to do you any good; otherwise it may prove worse than useless.

Many an athlete or prize fighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the affray, while many another has gone to inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron.—E. Sauer, M. D.

Note — Nuxated Iron, recommended above by Dr. Sauer, is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy, in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 200 per cent. or over in four weeks' time, provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., and all other druggists.

Recapture the Old Joy Of Living

HAS life lost its zest? Do you suffer pretty constantly from nervous depression—"the blues?"

Very often this state of things is brought on by poor elimination. Constipation is the underlying cause of many a case of "nerves" as any doctor will tell you.

Once get rid of constipation permanently and you will be amazed at the transformation in your health and spirits.

Laxatives and cathartics won't cure you of constipation. They give only temporary relief and tend to form a habit which is exceedingly dangerous.

But you will find in Nujol a rational means of restoring normal, healthful bowel activity. Nujol is a pure white mineral oil conforming to all the requirements of the Lane treatment for constipation, which physicians everywhere are now prescribing as the safest and most effective means of restoring normal bowel activity.

It is not a laxative but a lubricant. Being entirely mechanical in its action it may be taken in any quantity without harm.

Nujol is colorless, odorless, and tasteless.

Write for booklet, "The Rational Treatment of Constipation." If your druggist hasn't it, we will send a pint bottle of Nujol prepaid to any point in the United States on receipt of 75c—money order or stamps.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, DEPARTMENT OF STATE.—Certificate of Dissolution.

To All to Whom These Presents May Come—Greeting:

Whereas, It appears to my satisfaction, by duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution thereof by the unanimous consent of all the stockholders, deposited in my office, that The Horticultural Company, a corporation of this State, whose principal office is situated in the City of Wilmington, County of New Hanover, State of North Carolina (Adrian von Leeuwen, Jr.) being the agent therein and in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served), has complied with the requirements of Chapter 21, Revisal of 1905, entitled "Corporations," preliminary to the issuing of this Certificate of Dissolution:

Now, Therefore, I, J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the said corporation did, on the 17 day of April, 1916, file in my office a duly executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by all the stockholders thereof, which said consent and the record of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file in my said office as provided by law.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereto set my hand and affixed my official seal at Raleigh, this 17 day of April, A. D. 1916.

TOP O' THE MORNING.

The great danger of continued prosperity is that we may forget the One from which it flows.
—CHAPMAN.

Oyster Bay has mobilized in the war on Wilson.

Bagdad unless you want him to give you lots of trouble.

Some folks can't see the inevitable till they are right up against it.

The most patriotic element of a country will rule it sooner or later.

War orphans, widows, pensions and pension growlers from who laid the rail.

Unless the Mexicans try to catch Villa, they will have to keep on watching us trying to catch him.

A mossback hurts his community worst when he has influence enough to make himself a drawback.

The ladies will be concerned in the statement that a continuance of war will put up the price of war paint.

Billy Sunday says Baltimore is full of devils, hence Billy must have had the fight of his life while he was there. His job is to put 'em on the mat.

The difference between the perception of a woman and a man is that a woman can take a dozen hints while a man is being knocked down with one.

A certain insurrectionist in this country won't dig in for the war till after the Republican convention gets through with its business at Chicago.

The June bride will be with us next month, and soon thereafter she will begin to hoard up tobacco store coupons under the idea that they are about as good as small change.

The cartoonists have the boys and their swimming hole down fine. An old song says "The funniest thing's a frog," but the cartoonists are proving that a boy is funnier than a frog.

A Republican contemporary says: "The crisis of the Republican party has arrived." Well, he recently arrived from the West Indies, but the question is whether he will land at Chicago.

We want the Mexicans to assure us that they can capture Villa, but they can only do as we have done—try to catch him and spend millions doing the best that can be done to get the villain.

With the German press abusing Wilson in Europe and the Republican papers lampooning him in America, it would seem to be a good time for Americans to take the side of Wilson.

Nobody ever saw a knocker who was a leader in his community. By knocking, a fellow makes it known that he is not a leader but simply a knocker. This is a hard saying but Mabel knows it's so.

The Montgomery Advertiser should worry. That esteemed contemporary anxiously inquires: "What are we going to do for Irish lace now?" New Jersey and New England will keep on catering to the demand.

The dye problem seems to rankle in th ebosom of many patriots, while the textile industries are operating on a larger scale than ever. They are getting dyes from somewhere and their complaint is about the high price. The German, Mexican and dye problems are being worked by politicians for all they are worth.

When the President of the United States is being sorely tried in handling problems with Germany, Great Britain, France and Mexico, one of the country's ex-presidents has considered it a kind of Americanism to keep up an incessant sniping campaign against the President of his country. It may be called Americanism, but it is a contemptible kind that patriotic Americans spurn. Former President Taft sets an example of patriotism of the true kind by standing by the President of his country.

GLASS HOUSE CRITICS

Some of President Wilson's critics can speak with more or less propriety and consistency of his Mexican policy, even if they do so in ignorance, malice or partisan zeal. However, critics who have been over the same ground as that which the President has been treading are barred out as credible crusaders. The New York World puts in that class former Secretary of State Philander C. Knox, a member of President Taft's cabinet. Knox fell in line a few days ago and ventured an attack on Wilson's Mexican policy, but the World refreshes the former secretary's memory with this bit of history:

"When he denied that the present administration inherited the Mexican situation from President Taft and himself he is counting strongly upon public forgetfulness. It is no exaggeration to say that if Henry Lane Wilson, representing Messrs. Taft and Knox in the city of Mexico as ambassador, had not actively participated in the conspiracy for the overthrow of President Madero, which ended in the murder of that magistrate, there would have been no such Mexican "situation" as now confronts us.

"To make out his case in favor of the red-handed dictator, Huerta, Mr. Knox complacently assumes the legitimacy of everything that happened in the ghastly days of February, 1913, when he and Mr. Taft were still in office. It is true that Madero and Vice President Suarez "resigned," but they did so with pistols at their heads. It is true that Foreign Minister Lascurain succeeded Madero automatically, in accordance with the constitution, but he held the place only fifteen minutes, just long enough to commission as minister of interior the tyrant standing at his elbow, who then by the letter of law became acting president, with Mr. Knox's ambassador pleading urgently by telegraph for his instant recognition. It is also true that to bring about this result and establish Huerta in his usurped office, thousands of people, including many Americans, were killed or wounded in the streets of the capital, an orgy which terminated at length in the secret assassination of Madero and Suarez, with not a word of protest or even inqury from Washington.

"Henry Lane Wilson kept Secretary Knox fully informed of the progress of this tragedy in dispatches which reveal almost incredible sympathy with every stage of the proceedings. In Mexico the representative of the United States was noisy in his patisanship. In Washington there was the silence of complete indifference or of light-heated acquiesance. There may be men in the United States who have a right to criticise the President's Mexican policy, but Philander C. Knox is not one of them."

All this occurred just three years ago, so how can the people forget it, much less Knox? We remember it just as the World tells it, and we also remember the sycophancy with which Henry Lane Wilson paid homage to Huerta, to the complete disgust of Americans of the high ideal class. It might be going too far to say that Henry Lane Wilson "actively participated" in the conspiracy which overthrew Madero and resulted in his assassination, but he knew about the conspiracy beforehand, and even after President Madero and Vice-President Suarez had been murdered, he did everything he could possibly do to shield Huerta from the just contempt of Americans.

Anyhow, it is history that the World recalls, and the conditions referred to existed when Taft was President and Knox was his Secretary of State. There was no Republican intervention in Mexico, but President Taft pursued a policy of hands off with patience and President Wilson continued it under the name of "watchful waiting." Meanwhile, under the circumstances, Knox is discredited as a crusader against the Wilson administration. If the Wilson administration is to be condemned for non-intervention, then Taft and Knox are to be condemned for not intervening when Mexico's government was overthrown by assassination and seized by an army officer who set himself up as dictator without the consent of the Mexican people, who refused later to submit to his dictatorship.

We believe President Taft pursued a policy that he thought was best for Mexico and the United States, and Knox is doing harm to it by trying to be a partisan critic.

THE INDEPENDENT DAYS OF THE SOUTH

There was a day when the South was independent and enjoyed an industrial preparedness that made her so. She didn't have to calamity howl about the price of cotton, nor worry about something to eat, nor be disturbed about what to wear. That was in the good old days before the South went cotton crazy and got into an economic rut from which it is difficult to emerge. It was in the good old days when real diversified farming prevailed in the South and enabled her to keep armies in the field in excelent keep armies in the field in excellent years of war.

Many elderly Southerners know this, but Mr. Martin V. Calvin, a well known Georgia writer on economic themes, has written an article which will give present day Southerners an idea of old time prosperity in the South—"befo' de wah and durin' er de wah." Mr. Calvin exploits the fact that "orop diversification was successfully and uniformly practiced in the South in the fifties." He states that "livestock farming was but another name fo rthe system that made cotton or tobacco, as the case may be, a surplus crop." That was the system, he says, which "made the Southern people continuously prosperous and very wealthy." Taking Georgia as an example, Mr. Calvin writes:

"Do you know that half a century had passed before the Georgia of today doubled the corn crop of 1860? And yet our population had increased quite 150 per cent., and we have had for years and years the best of improved farm implemens and farm machinery. We have had for years and years an abundant supply of high-grade commercial fertilizers—had them up to the close of 1914.

"In 1860 the production of corn was 29 bushels per capita; oats, 1.1 bushel; wheat, 2.4 bushels. There was 28.3 per cent. of a cow per capita; two-thirds of a beef per capita; 1.9 (quite two) swine per capita; almost half a sheep per capita.

"In 1914, the production of corn per capita was 20.1 bushels; oats, 3.2 bushels; wheat, 61 per cent. of a bushel. There was 14.6 per cent. of a cow per capita; nearly 1-4 of a beef per capita; about 3-4 of a swine and less than 6 per cent. of a sheep per capita.

"You see that the Georgia farmers of the '50's understood diversification of crops and were real live stock farmers—their cotton being a surplus cash crop. These facts are 'unchallengeable.'"

Georgia farming in the days referred to by Mr. Calvin was typical of the whole South. Keep in mind the fact that Georgia had just one-third the population that she has today, so that her people then were about three times as prosperous per capita as they are today. In 1860 the South owned 28 per cent. of the horses in the United States, 30 per cent. of all the mules, 38 per cent. of all the work ovxn, 31 per cent. of all the milk cows, 22 per cent. of all the sheep, and 46 per cent. of al the hogs in the United States. In 1860, the people of the South had three hogs for every one the people of the South had at the last census. The large population of Georgia today has only 5,000 hogs more than the small population of Georgia had in 1860.

Between 1830 and 1860 is known as the South's golden era of agriculture. Real paupers were scarce and were not a burden in such a land of plenty. The South didn't know what store meat was and raised all its own pork, beef and mutton. The South made its own bread, wore tailor-made clothes, and had its own tan yards and wore shoes and boots made by artists in the shoe shops of the days of the South's independence.

NEW NATIONAL PREPAREDNESS PLAN

You just can't lose Asheville. The mountain metropolis of North Carolina has a way of staying on the map and keeping its name in the date lines of the newspapers. If one should ask for the explanation, just say, "Asheville Board of Trade." That live-wire, booster organization is what turns the trick. Its eyes and ears are everlastingly open for opportunities to advertise Asheville. Anybody who reads newspapers can't forget Asheville. That is a very important part of the business of the board of trade—to see that the balance of North Carolina and the country at large doesn't forget Asheville.

The Asheville Board of Trade puts over one advertising scheme after another. Usually the suggestions emanating from that source are well worth consideration and some of them at least worthy of adoption. The latest is the "Asheville Plan for National Preparedness," and it looks practicable and well worth while. The plan is that Asheville and every other city in the country erect a monument in the shape of a big cannon similar to the ones now being used by France and Germany, to be kept in good condition to be used by the government in case of war at any time. It is suggested that cities that can't provide a big cannon equip one or more machine guns and have a machine gun corps. All these cannon and machine guns, under the plan, would be made according to specification of the War Department, a record of all cannon and machine guns to be kept by that department, as is now done with respect to the armament of the Army and Navy.

The Asheville plan contemplates that where companies of the National Guard are stationed, the machine gun corps would be made up of the National Guardsmen, ammunition for practice to be furnished by the government. Where no National Guard company is located, sufficient men, it is believed, could be secured under army regulations for handling the machine guns.

The net result would be, according to those behind the scheme, and we are not prepared to say that it would not prove practicable and desirable, that the various cities of the country would of their own accord and pleasure furnish a large per cent. of the machine guns and cannon required in case of war, together with good crews of experienced men to handle them, thus greatly augmenting and strengthening the defensive forces of the Nation.

A MAN AND HIS RECORD

Some contemporaries are criticising Senator Simmons for attacking Butler and Butlerism in his keynote speech at Raleigh. We guess the reason the Senator did it is because Butler and Butlerism happen to be State issues in this campaign.

Of course, it's awful, but the issue came all the way from Washington and got in it himself. When a fellow has a record that is subject to attack on all four sides, he ought to stay out of politics so people can forget it. A fellow who gets into politics and drags his record in with him is liable to get is assaulted. Those who don't want their record attacked ought to accompany it to Alaska and bury it in the ice.

A man who goes into politics ought not to have any record that his opponent can camp on during the campaign. The "camp" in campaign is more excruciating than the paign (pain).

CURRENT COMMENT

Georgia is now locally dry, but remains nationally wet. The new prohibition laws are operative on and after May 1. So far as the national government is concerned, Georgia is as much a legitimate field of operations for the liquor traffic as it has ever been. This strangely contradictory and regretable situation comes about because the United States government permits to the liquor dealer what the state itsef has attempted to deny—the right to solicit custom and to deliver goods in which the state would prohibit all traffic.—Atlanta Constitution.

Mr. Bryan stumped North Carolina very industriously for a month or more against the President's policies, and thereafter, we were told by one or two newspapers, that the sentiment of the State was adverse to the administration. The comment of the Democratic people "down home" on that statement is a crushing denial of its truth. One hundred Democratic conventions were held in 100 North Carolina counties last Saturday and 100 sets of unanimous endorsements of President Wilson were put on record. Some of the conventions may have been guilty of an oversight of one kind or another, but not one failed to have the presiednt in mind.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

Now that some doubt has arisen in connection with the return to Washington of Congressman Claude Kitchen is finding more friends among the newspapers of the state that he knew of. Some papers that in the past had been among his sharpest critics and are now saying that his defeat would be a calamity to the party and the State. The soundest argument being advanced in behalf of Mr. Kitchin is in line with that advocated in the instance of Simmons, Overman, Webb and other North Carolinians who have gained positions of influence at Washington and who are making themselves correspondingly useful. The rotation sentiment in this State does not seem to apply to the Congressmen, and the ground for the exception is justified.—Charlotte Observer.

There are busybodies of Republicans—and the Republican party is the party of discontent—who are running around over the State talking about Democratic extravagance in school funds. If the Republicans dare get out in the open and call for a lessening of the educational opportunities offered the people there will be even a worse defeat come to them than they are going to get as it stands. It is the warm and earnest desire of the Republicans to drag the question of schools into politics. And the people of North Carolina know what happens when the Republicans get their hands on the schools and the funds which take care of the schools. There is a Republican record on this matter which the Republicans would like to wipe out, for it condemns them in stronger terms than can be done by the use of mere words. Charges of Democratic extravagance with school funds bob up in campaign years that the people may be deceived, if that is possible. But the people see what is being done with the money which is spent for schools and they are satisfied, for they contribute the money. And the people seeing the value of schools increase the expenses on their own volition by the addition of special taxes. But what is extravagance with school funds? Is it spending more money on the schools? If that is extravagance then the Democracy is guilty. But it must then be considered that there are vastly greater results being obtained, and money put to good use and proper use is not money extravagantly spent. And the Democratic party takes pride in the fact that North Carolina is being lifted out of the column of illiteracy because it is behind the movement to spend more money for the schools.

A PRAYER

By Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D. D.

"Be ye kind, tenderhearted, forgiving."—Eph. 4:32.

Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman.

Aching hearts are on every side of us. Smiles are too thin a veil to hide them. Flippant remarks cannot conceal them. Wealth cannot stop their pain, and poverty does not of necessity increase it.

Most people are in need of cheer, and as a rule this is imparted by the help that every right-thinking, true-hearted person can give.

In many a richly furnished house there is a shadow cast by the same sorrow that stopped for a little while with blighting touch in the home of poverty.

The human family is a great household.

The chasms which are supposed to divide us are imaginary—not real.

In weakness, in need, in sadness, in appreciation of sympathy and in response to love we are all quite alike.

If we would be helpful why not today offer a prayer something like this:

HELP ME

To be more true and good from day to day,
And just a bit more fair in some small way.

To think some kindly thing of all the folks I know.
And in the presence of distress a helpful spirit show.

To keep my brother's heavy woe in mind,
And hour by hour and day by day be truly kind.
To share some weary traveler's crushing load,
And lead some wanderer back in to the road.

To be forgiving and from censure free,
And be to others what I'd have them be to me.

To know that He is with me every day,
And be quite sure He hears me when I pray.

What is being done for the children of North Carolina is not extravagance. The pity of it is that we are not able to do more.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The Southern and the Atlantic Coast Line have arranged for a through Pullman service between Wilmington and Asheville for the summer and now is the time for the Seaboard to give a through service between Wilmington and Rutherfordton as a summer treat for the people along its line.—Charlotte Observer.

HEALTH TALKS

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

THE NEGLECTED FACTOR IN ANTISEPSIS

Sunlight, the most powerful germicide known to science, requires time to work. A culture of disease germs in a plate may withstand a momentary flash of sunshine, or at most suffer only inhibition of growth, but if the direct rays of the sun fall for a few minutes upon the culture all the germs will be destroyed.

In using disinfectants, for the proper disposal of infected discharges, the time element is commonly neglected. People imagine that a dash of disinfectant is sufficient. On the contrary, the disinfectant must remain for many minutes, perhaps half an hour or longer, in contact with the infected material, if the disease germs are to be rendered innocuous.

While it is by no means good practice to employ antiseptic or germicidal substances habitually in the toilet of the mouth, nose or other body cavity, there are many conditions in which antiseptics may be required. For instance, an acute sore throat, in which a mildly antiseptic gargle or spray is used. If the solution is but momentarily in contact with the inflamed or infected surface it can exert but feeble, if any, germicidal action, whereas, if it be kept in contact for a minute or two it may accomplish something in that direction.

Now this is no argument in behalf of lozenges in preference to sprays or gargles. We think lozenges very doubtful medicament. The point is, that it is a waste of time and money using antiseptic solutions unless they are used to practical advantage. A solution may be held in the throat for several minutes, if desired. The mouth will hold antiseptic solutions for an indefinite time. Likewise other body cavities.

As another instance, take pyorrhoea. While antiseptic dentifrices or amebacidal applications are helpful, many peoeple fail to obtain good results because they rinse out the medicament too soon. For example, the amebacide ipecac, or its active principle, emetin, can exert but feeble effect unless the dental cream or solution containing it is retained in the mouth for several minutes.

The same principle applies to the external dressing or treatment of infected wounds or ulcers. Time, as well as brains, must be utilized. Germs are persistent litle devils— that is the word, for germs make most of the misery and unhappiness in this world. Merely because a remedy is "antiseptic" you can't expect it to exercise the germs like a horse chestnut in the pocket or an iron ring on the finger or some other foolish charm.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Dizziness, Stuttering. Specific Gravity.

Is dizziness or vertigo a symptom of insanity? What is the outlook for recovery from stuttering in small children, or is that a defect that cannot be corrected? What does a two-year-old baby weigh normally, and is a young baby more likely to float or sink if thrown in the water?

Answer—1. No. 2. Good, if singing, elocution, good hygiene, and careful medical attention to any abnormalities or nose and throat are had. 3. Twenty-six pounds. Babies have lower specific gravity than older individuals and hence are more likely to float.

Skin Will Not Absorb Food.

Is it possible, by vigorous rubbing of the body, to cause absorption of oils or other foods in quantity sufficient to nourish or develop the body, locally or as a whole? Do strong liniments penetrate the skin?

Answer—The skin cannot be made to absorb nourishing substances of any appreciable quantity, and if it could, the food would have to be generally distributed—it could not be deposited locally at the desire of the individual. Strong liniments are strong only in counter-irritating effect. Certain drugs are absorbed through the skin, but if so, they exert a general effect, not a local effect at the desire of the individual. You know, the body is very unaccommodating in that way.

Drive Catarrh Away By Purifying Your Blood

During winter, nature changes the blood of man and we, because of our habits, unconsciously do those things which are against nature. Then far down amid the vital organs creep weaknesses, that our blood is not vigorous enough to fight off.

Here is where Catarrh enters and quickly makes a conquest. We feel the effects of a cold in nose or throat and sometimes in lungs and stomach. The most common symptoms of the presence of Catarrh is an inflamed and tender condition of the breathing passages and the blocking of throat and nostrils with mucous.

It is a frequent mistake to treat this symptom and neglect the actual disease.

If the blood was pure and vigorous Catarrh would not get a foothold. But having gotten a foothold in our system, the only possible way to cure the disease is to remove the impurities from the blood and at the same time tone up the blood so it will become vigorous and healthy again.

The use of washes, sprays, salves, have only a temporary local effect; they do not reach the disease. S. S. S. has proved for half a century to be the most powerful antidote to poison in the blood. Its action is to strengthen the blood corpuscles so they fight off disease. If you suffer from Catarrh in any of its forms, don't be misled into treating the symptoms but take S. S. S. and remove the cause.

SHERIFF COWAN MAKES SETTLEMENT OF TAXES

With Board of County Commissioners For Year 1915

Considerable Discussion Evoked Over Location of Highway at Winter Park—Appropriation for Road Convention.

The settlement with Sheriff Cowan for the collection of taxes for the year 1915 and the location of a public road connecting the Wrightsville turnpike at Winter Park with the Scott's Hill highway, the distance being slightly more than a mile, were the chief matters receiving attention at the monthly meeting of the Board of Commissioners of New Hanover yesterday afternoon. Reports of the different county officials were submitted and the board adjourned to meet again next Monday.

Sheriff Cowan reported that he had collected $246,727.44 out of a total of $256,927.05, charged against him by the county, his collections representing 96 2-3 per cent of the total amount due the county. The report of the sheriff was referred to County Auditor J. A. Orrell for verification.

The different items charged against the Sheriff were as follows: Listed on abstracts by list takers, $238,403.37; listed by auditor and Sheriff, $1,133.74; marriage license fees turned over by the Register of Deeds, $390; schedule B tax, $15,088.40; delinquents, $1,269.37; back taxes, $643.17. Besides the total collections of $246,727.44 the abatements amounted to $1,748.21; insolvents to $3,678.20, and property sold to $4,773.20.

Messrs. E. H. Freeman, C. H. Bonham and W. B. McClellan appeared before the board with reference to the opening up of the road from the Wrightsville turnpike to the Scott's Hill road. Mr. Freeman was under the impression, he stated, that a final decision was not to be reached until the meeting yesterday but as work had already started he was placed in somewhat of a quandary. It was his opinion that the road ought to come out at Audubon, about half mile west of Winter Park. He pointed out the difficulty of securing a road 30 or 40 feet wide in the vicinity of Winter Park because of the way the lots are laid off there. He vigorously protested against the building of any road that is not more than 18 feet in width, pointing out that it is dangerous to traffic.

Commissioner MacMillan agreed with Mr. Freeman that no road should be built that is less than 30 feet wide. Commissioner Willard was of the same opinion but thought that in some instances circumstances might require a variation. All of the Commissioners were of the opinion that the road should extend from Winter Park. Mr. Freeman stated that he would bow to the will of the board, but insisted that an investigation should be made as to the proper width of the road. On motion of Commissioner Willard a resolution was adopted requesting Chairman McGirt to secure a right-of-way of not less than 40 feet all the way to Winter Park without cost to the county.

Chairman McGirt was of the opinion that the county had done its part when it had tapped settlements or communities and that it was not incumbent upon the board to look after the road in the village at Winter Park. Replying to the criticism advanced that hasty action had been taken about beginning work on this road, Chairman McGirt stated that he had taken up the matter with different members of the board and that he was under the impression that all favored the location as laid out on a map, which had been shown them.

Mr. R. A. Burnett, superintendent of county roads, stated that about three-fourths of a mile of the road had been cleared already but that the force had not reached the point where Mr. Freeman stated that difficulty would be experienced in getting a right-of-way of the proper width. He said that he could put the force to work grading until this matter was settled.

Col. Walker Taylor and Messrs. C. C. Covington, J. B. Rice and L. E. Hall, members of the finance committee for securing funds for entertaining the North Carolina Good Roads Association, which meets in Wilmington in June, asked that the board make an appropriation to this fund. Mr. Hall pointed out the splendid results that would be obtained from having the meeting here and was followed by Mr. Covington, who told of a trip through Bladen county and the great need that existed there for improved roads. Col. Taylor thought an appropriation would be perfectly legitimate as the meeting would undoubtedly prove a great impetus to the building of improved highways throughout this entire section.

It was moved by Commissioner MacMillan and seconded by Commissioner Yopp that an appropriation of $200 be made. Commissioner Willard declared that it was entirely out of line for the county to make appropriation for conventions. He did not think that the money of the people should be used for this purpose. It ought to be left up to public spirited citizens, who could afford to contribute, he thought. As an individual he was willing to make a donation for this purpose, but not from the county funds as a commissioner.

Commissioner MacMillan did not agree with Mr. Willard that little good would come from the convention in the way of improved roads. He pointed out that already as a direct result of the coming of the convention to this city, one of the bad places in the road in Pender county just beyond Long Creek is being improved and also stated that a plank bridge is being built over a swamp at Long Creek.

The motion was put by Chairman McGirt and adopted with Commissioner Willard voting against it. Commissioner Kerr did not attend the meeting yesterday.

Mr. R. C. Humphreys reported that he would have the road to Carolina Beach completed within two or three weeks. There was a distance of about a third of a mile which would not come up to the requirements of the specifications, he stated, and he wanted something done about this. His request was referred to the special committee composed of Chairman McGirt and Commissioners Yopp and MacMillan.

Mr. G. C. Simmons, standard keeper for the county, submitted a report that shows he has been quite active [illegible] past two months. In that time he visited 181 stores, tested 567 scales, 508 weights, 602 dry measures, [illegible] liquid measures and 29 oil tanks. He condemned 63 dry measures, 31 [illegible] measures and five oil tanks. His collection of condemned articles was

LOCAL ROTARIANS LEAVE

Delegation of 24 Members of Wilmington Club Take Special Pullman for Rally at Richmond.

A delegation of 24 members of the Wilmington Rotary Club left here last night at 6:45 o'clock on a special Pullman which had been reserved for their use for Richmond, Va., where they will be the guests of the Richmond Rotarians at the rally held for the Southeastern Division of Rotary Clubs beginning this morning.

The delegation included the following: Messrs. T. R. Ames, Milton Calder, C. C. Covington, Odis B. Hinnant, G. R. Humphreys, Jno. R. Murchison, S. M. Boatwright, P. B. Bell, M. A. Curtis, Jr., Davis H. Howes, Jr., D. C. Love, Roger Moore, president of the club; W. A. McGirt, J. B. McCabe, Dr. George K. Patterson, Will Rehder, C. W. Rodgers, J. Shinberger, E. L. White, C. W. Polvogt, J. B. Rice, Horace D. Springer, B. W. Thacker and Louis T. Moore.

Besides the local delegation, the Richmond club has made elaborate preparations to entertain large delegations from Asheville, Durham, Winston-Salem, Spartanburg, Greenville, Norfolk, Roanoke and Newport News.

Richmond Plans Big Day

Sunday's Richmond Times-Dispatch has the following concerning the plans for today's entertainment:

"At the same time the local culb is entertaining 300 members from the neighboring states it expects to carry out the idea of rotary clubs in general, which is that business men, not only of communities, but also business men of great sections of the country, ought to know each other and ought to know each other's business. Business men from the two Carolinas and from other cities in Virginia will be constantly reminded all during Tuesday that they are ordinary human beings.

"The fun promises to start at 7 o'clock at the Main street station, when the host, the Richmond Rotary Club, begins to welcome its guests from the South. All during the day there will be things of interest. Every hour has been crowded until more things are promised on the programme than it appears possible to crowd into the space of time allotted.

"Some time between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock Tuesday evening there is to be a session of the club in the Richmond Hotel. At this time the first business to be attended to will be the reports of the presidents of the various clubs. This will prove of considerable interest to the various members.

"Judge Waller L. Staples, of Roanoke, will deliver an address on 'What Shall We Do With Our Involuntary Rotarians?' He will be followed by W. H. Bagley, business manager of the News and Observer, of Raleigh, the subject of whose address is 'How May Rotary be Given to the Smaller Towns and Country Without Giving Them a Rotary Club?'

"The 'stunts' arranged by the committee are of such originality that it is expected that a moving picture concern will have a camera man here to take several hundred feet of film.

"The programme as arranged for these events follows:

"10 A. M.—Meeting of the Southeastern District Rotary clubs, Governor Sites presiding.

"12 noon—Automobile parade, 'Seeing Richmond,' and on to the Country Club. Band.

"1 P. M.—Luncheon at Country Club of Virginia. Band concerts; 'stunts.'

"3.30 P. M.—International League (Richmond vs. Montreal), Broad Street park. More 'stunts'; band.

"6:30 P. M.—Get-together. Hotel Richmond; band concert.

"7:30 P. M.—Supper; vaudeville, Rotarian cabaret."

IN MARINE CIRCLES

Two Foreign Steamers Arrived Yesterday for Cargoes of Cotton.

Two foreign steamers arrived in the port of Wilmington yesterday for cargoes of cotton for European ports. The total tonnage of the two vessels is 3,580. Both ships are consigned to Alexander Sprunt & Son, cotton exporters. One of the vessels came light and the other brought a cargo.

The British steamer Sowwell, of 2,430 tons, Captain Walton, master, arrived light from London, having sailed on April 3. The Dutch steamer Nbbergen, of 1,150 tons, Captain Ruige, master, arrived from Villarreal, Spain, with a cargo of pyrites for the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company. This vessel, after unloading, will take on a cargo of cotton at the docks of Alexander Sprunt & Son. The Ubbergen sailed from Villarreal on April 10.

The coast guard cutter Seminole returned to port yesterday from target practices off the coast. As the coast guard cruising season is over, the cutter goes out hereafter only when called or ordered out to aid vessels reported in distress.

POSTOFFICE RECEIPTS SHOWED INCREASE OF $1,800 IN APRIL

Over Preceding Month, According to Postmaster Green's Report.

The receipts at the Wilmington postoffice during April aggregated $12,282.58, as compared with $10,473.46 during March, which represents an increase of $1,809.12, according to the report of Postmaster H. McL. Green just issued.

According to Postmaster Green no special significance attaches to the increases receipts, as the revenues of the local postoffice, depend largely on the sale of stamps for letters and parcel post packages, and the volume of receipts fall off or show an increase when the railroad companies or the merchants lay in extra supplies or refrain from doing so.

FATHER IS ILL

Mr. William E. Lawson, Manager of The Dispatch, Called to Greensboro.

The man yfriends of Mr. William E Lawson, manager of The Evening Dispatch, will regret to learn that his father, Mr. J. P. Lawson, of Winston-Salem, is seriously ill at a sanitarium in Greensboro. The elder Mr. Lawson is well known in Wilmington, having visited here on a number of occasions. Yesterday's Raleigh News & Observer has the following:

"Mr. W. E. Lawson, manager of the Wilmington Dispatch, was in the city last night on his way to Greensboro where he was called by the serious illness of his father, Mr. J. P. Lawson, of Winston-Salem. The elder Mr. Lawson is in a sanitarium in Greensboro."

SEALED PROPOSALS will be opened by the Lighthouse Inspector, Charleston, S. C., at 12 o'clock, noon, May 15, 1916, for docking and general repairs to Brunswick Light Vessel, No. 84. Blank proposals, etc., upon application to above office. my2,4,6-3t

SWINSON SHOT THROUBH LEG

Officer H. Mack Godwin Finds Further Evidence Against Negro, Charged With Burglaries.

That Lawrence Swinson, the negro in jail without bond under self confession that he committed at least five of the numerous burglaries in the city that had baffled the police of Wilmington for nearly six months, was shot in the leg by one of several who took a pot shot at him during his various operations in the city before he was captured, was ferreted out yesterday by County Officer H. Mack Godwin, who, with Policeman J. O. Bullard, caused the arrest of Swinson about a week ago.

In continuing his investigation of the case, which has been unremitting on his part, County Officer Godwin discovered a pair of trousers and an under garment of the negro that gave evidence of having a pistol hole through the leg from one side to the other. Certain other circumstances that the officer had also connected up link by link indicated that the negro had not escaped all the shots that were fired at him from time to time by different residents who awoke while their homes were being robbed and had opportunity of firing at the burglar as he beat a precipitate retreat.

Mr. Godwin made a very close examination of the garments and his deductions were sufficient to warrant him in again visiting the prisoner in jail and making an examination of his leg. It was found that, as the clothes indicated, about six weeks ago the negro was shot through and through the calf of the leg by some one—the officer has not yet discovered by whom. Swinson most solemnly averred that the pistol shot wound was received in Philadelphia where he had a shooting match with another negro in a quarrel over a girl, but Mr. Godwin is satisfied that such is not the case and that some one must have wounded the negro as he was escaping from some house during the past six weeks.

Mr. Godwin has also about fastened upon the negro still another burglary to which he has not confessed—that of a home on Walnut street where the negro, in breaking a window had his finger badly cut. The wife of Swinson testified to having dressed the hand of her husband and described the nature of the bandage which she put on the wounded finger the same night of the robbery on Walnut street. When Mr. Mason's home on Queen street was robbed a few nights thereafter a bandage slipped from the finger was found on the floor by Mr. Godwin and this has been identified as one with which the wife of Swinson bandaged her husband's hand the night of the robbery.

Mr. Godwin is continuing his investigation of further circumstances in connection with the various robberies and hopes to bring to light still further developments.

BAG CONTAINING NINE HENS IS FOUND IN VACANT HOUSI

On Dawson Street, by Colored Family Which Was Moving Into Building.

In a vacant house at No. 611 Dawson street, into which George Simpson, colored, and family were preparing to move a bag containing nine live hens was found about 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning by the negro's wife.

The discovery of the fowls, which had evidently been stolen by some one and hidden there, was reported by Simpson to Officer W. C. Moore, but from the dazed and sickly appearance of the chickens, it was apparent that they had been there two days or more without food or water. It was decided that the trail of the thief was too cold to put the bloodhounds on it. A colored woman came to the police station yesterday and identified one of the hens as belonging to her. The police have notified several other persons who have recently lost chickens to come to the station, but so far none of the rest of the fowls have been identified.

BISHOP HAID IN CITY.

Catholic Divine Will Visit Several Churches in This Section.

Rt. Rev. Leo Haid, O. S. B., of Belmont Abbey, who has charge of all the Catholic churches in North Carolina, arrived here yesterday from Lumberton, where he dedicated the new church at that place. He is a guest at St. Mary's parochial residence.

This evening he will administer the sacrament of confirmation at St. Thomas' church here and tomorrow will officiate at a similar ceremony at St. Helena.

Elaborate exercises in connection with the dedication of the new church at Lumberton were carried out Sunday. A choir from this city consisting of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Banks, Miss Annie Banks, Mrs. E. K. Bryan, Miss Margaret Corbett, Messrs. James and Walker Bergen, Frank Banks, D. A. Lockfaw, Harry Daniels and Mr. James Owen Reilly, as organist, took part in the musical programme.

TRANSFORMER BURNED OUT.

Dredge "Sand Piper" at Wrightsville Shut Down Temporarily.

The Tidewater Power Company's electric dredge, knwon as "The Sand Piper", which has been operating at the beach day and night ever since Secretary Redfield pushed the button that started the machinery, has had to shut down temporarily on account of the burning out of one of the large transformers at the Wrightsville substation.

"The Sand Piper" will resume operations as soon as a new transformer can be installed or the damaged one repaired. It is expected that the trouble will be corrected before the end of the week.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following deeds were filed for record yesterday in the office of the Register of Deeds: H. McC. Stanford and McC. B. Wilson to Susan G. Powers, for $100 and other considerations, two lots at Winter Park Gardens; Martin Schnibben to E. F. O. Banck and J. G. L. Gieschen, for $3,075, 66 acres of land on the sound; Co-Operative Building and Loan Association to Anderson Stroud, for $10 and other considerations, lot on southeast corner of Seventh and Queen streets, 49 by 93 feet in size; Anderson Stroud and wife to Thomas A. Smith and wife, for $100 and other considerations, lot on southeast corner of Seventh and Queen streets.

Funeral of Mr. Hall.

The funeral of the late Mr. Virginius Hall, whose death occurred at his home in this city Sunday morning, will be conducted this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from St. John's Episcopal church, of which he was a devoted member, and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

MR. SMALLBONES IS ELECTED

To Vacancy on Board of Navigation and Pilotage at Monthly Meeting—Other Elections.

Mr. Walter Smallbones was elected a member of the Board of Navigation and Pilotage at the regular monthly meeting of the board held yesterday morning in the office of the chairman, Dr James Sprunt. Mr. Smallbones will fill the vacancy on the Board caused by the death of Mr. H. G. Smallbones Sr., which occurred several weeks ago.

A committee was appointed to draft appropriate resolutions of respect for Mr. Smallbones' memory, who was for a number of years one of the most efficient members of the Board.

Major W. N. Harriss, and Messrs. J. S. Williams and Louis H. Skinner were re-elected port wardens for the ensuing year. Capt. E. D. William was re-elected harbor master and Mr John T. Rankin, was re-elected clerk of the Board of Navigation and Pilotage.

Capt. E. D. Williams, harbor master, made his quarterly report on the arrivals of vessels in port which showed that there were 50 vessels of a total of 85,068 tons. Report of the monthly soundings was made and filed.

The following pilots were granted a re-newal of license for the ensuing year: J. F. Arnold; E. H. Adkins, O. D. Burriss, H. C. Corlette, M. T. Craig, G. L. Daniels, I. S. Davis, T. M. Morse, B. F. Newton, Walker Newton, W. J. Newton, L. J. Pepper, J. S. Sellers, C. B. St. George, J. N. St. George, W. M. St. George, Thomas St. George, J. A. Williams.

141 ARRESTS MADE BY POLICE DURING APRIL.

Decrease in Number Arrested Attributed to Meetings at Tabernacle.

Although the aggregate number of arrests made during the past month is but eight less the number made by the police in March, according to Chief N. J. Williams' report, there is a marked decrease in the number of whites arrested for violations of the law. The number of whites arrested during April was 37, as compared with 51 for the previous month.

The decrease in crime in Wilmington as evidenced by the above figures is attributed to the Chapman-Alexander meetings which are being conducted at the Tabernacle. That there was very little falling off in the number of colored citizens arrested during the same period, is due to the fact that they have only the opportunity of attending the services in small numbers.

The total number of arrests made during the month of April by members of the police department was 141 as compared with 149 for the previous month. Of the 141 arrests, 37 were whites and 104 colored.

Arrests for the various offenses were made as follows: Drunks, whites 12, colored 5; disorderly conduct, whites 10, colored 15; assault, colored 2; assault with deadly weapon, whites 1, colored 13; assault on female, colored 7; carrying concealed weapon, whites 1, colored 3; vagrancy, colored 4; violation prohibition law, whites 1, colored 4; larceny, whites 4, colored 25; murder, colored 1; highway robbery, colored 3; house-breaking, colored 2; violation tax ordinance, whites 2, colored 5; insanity, whites 1, colored 1; violating driving ordinance, colored 6; hitching ordinance, colored 1; speed law, whites 5, colored 7. Total, whites 37; colored 104; grand total, whites and colored, 141.

DECREASE IN RAINFALL FOR APRIL WAS 1.65 INCHES

Was a Milder Month Than March According to Weather Report.

There was a deficiency of more than 1 1-2 inches in rainfall during April as compared with the normal precipitation during the month, according to the monthly meteorological summary issued by Observer G. W. Felger, of the local office of the United States Weather Bureau. The normal precipitation for the month is 2.86, whereas only 1.21 inches of rain actually fell.

Although March maintained its reputation for being the windiest month of the year with a wind movement of 6,971 miles, April with a movement of 6,194 miles was not so far behind in this respect. April, as might be expected, with a mean temperature of 60 degrees, was a much milder month than March, with its mean temperature of 52 degrees.

Although March with its record of seven killing frosts was accounted an exceptional hard season on local growers of truck, April with its deficiency in rainfall is likely to prove equally disastrous; and unless some relief in the way of heavy showers comes soon good crops cannot be produced by the growers.

The high mean temperature of April on the 14th day of the month was 88 degrees, and the lowest was 36 degrees recorded on the 10th. Although no killing frosts fell, 11 light ones are recorded.

WILSON WOMAN'S CLUB GIVES SCORES OF BABIES AN OUTING

Wilson, N. C., May 1.—Babies of all ages and conditions of life, from the homes of the wealthy and from the hovels of the slums—just babies and scores of them—were given an outing this afternoon, when the Wilson Woman's Club featured the beginning of "Baby Week" with an automobile trip for babies—everybody's baby. Mrs. F. M. Swindell was at the head of the active committee and it was an appealing sight as the cars were loaded with babies, their parents and nurses in front of the court house.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday are Baby Days with public exercises at the court house and addresses on important phases of baby life and baby care by Wilson physicians. Demonstrations by trained nurses from local hospitals will feature two days. Thursday night an illustrated lecture will close the four-day programme.

JUNIOR WEEK FESTIVITIES AT UNIVERSITY MOST SUCCESSFUL

Chapel Hill, N. C., May 1.—The university is now swinging back into its normal trend after the festivities of last week. Most of the visitors have departed.

The Junior week festivities this year were probably the most successful in the history of the University. Over sixty girls from al parts of this and other states attended the dances, which began Wednesday evening and closed Friday evening. Classes were suspended Thursday and Friday and a large number of the students availed themselves of this opportunity for rest and recreation before the ordeal of the final examinations.

The first dance was given Wednesday evening by the Junior Order of the Gorgon's Head in the Bynum gymnasium.

The last of the formal dances was given Friday evening by the University German club. The leaders were: John Haywood Jones, of Newbern, assisted by Sam Telfair, of Raleigh, and Frank Shamburger, of Biscoe.

On Thursday afternoon an informal dance was given at the Gimghoul lodge. Friday afternoon the class of 1918 gave a sophomore hop in honor of the Senior class. The leaders were: Bruce Webb, of Asheville, assisted by Robert DeRossett, of Wilmington, and Holmes Herty, of Chapel Hill.

Among the girl sattending the dances were the following:

Raleigh—Eliza Leach with William Proctor; Katherine Crews with William Polk; Mildred Holding with Fabius Shipp; Bessie Lumsden with Bernard Kinlaw; Luta Belle Spann and Agnes Cotten Timberlake with Frank Norris; Josephine White with Gregory Graham; Mary Frances Bowen with Frank Upchurch.

Charlotte—Benetta Heath with Sam Telfair; Julia Scott with Francis Clarkson; Sarah Melon with Fred Wilson; Mary Stuart Alexander with Carl King.

Durham—Lucy Stokes with Edwin Borden; Julia Henry with William Graves; Claudia Lewis with Dave Tayloe; Elise Lloyd with George Tandy; Mattie Maud Adams with S. I. Parker; Mary Erwin with Daniel Breeden; Mildred Turner with Marshall Williams.

Wilmington—Florence Taylor with Frank Love and Miriam Holliday with Fabius Shipp.

Greensboro—Marian Jones with Banks Mebane and Kena Adams with Marshall Williams.

Fayetteville—Helen Dodson with Mebane Long; Emma Sheetz with Frank Norris; Em. Pemberton with John Harvey; Mary Starr Cook with Henry Cook.

Washington—Elizabeth Tayloe with Dave Tayloe; Elizabeth Simmons with Enoch Simmons; Robena Carter with William Dewar.

Goldsboro—Mary Dortch with Borden Cobb; Ethel Miller and Clyde Fore; Carol Collier with Hilliary Winslow.

Winston-Salem—May Coan with Wilson Dalton and Katherine Graham, Edwin Hartshorn.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Beginning yesterday the S. H. Kress and Company 5 and 10 cent store began a sale of white and colored dress goods, which in all probability will attract great crowds of shoppers. Exceptional bargains are being offered in white and colored dress goods of all kinds, the reduction on some goods being as much as one-half the former price.

—Solomon Pasman, 13 years old, the youthful newsboy who ran away from his home in Newbern and was detained in Wilmington at the request of his parents, was sent back by Chief of Police Williams yesterday afternoon on the train leaving here at 2:25 o'clock, who had the youngster turned over to Conductor Newell to see that he gets back home safely.

—At a special meeting of City Council yesterday at noon it was decided to accept the recommendation of the committee, appointed several weeks ago to advertise for bids for furnishing uniforms for the cit yfire and police departments and J. M. Solky & Co. were given the contract for furnishing uniorms for the city fire and police Southerland & Weaver were given the contract for the fire department.

—Members of the fire department were called out last night shortly after 11 o'clock on account of an alarm turned in from Box No. 45. The fire, of which there was only a moderat amount, was confined to an oil stove which exploded at the residence of Doc Lewis, colored, Tenth and Orange street. The stove was pitched out in the street. No damage was done to the house.

SAILORS ON INTERNED STEAMERS TURN GARDENERS

Kiel and Nicaria Men Make Use of Leisure—Celebrate Victory.

Sailors on boar dthe German steamers Kiel and Nicaria, are whiling away their leisure moments by experimenting in the growing of garden truck. Their efforts are meeting with considerable success and they have a dozen or more small patches with good stands of vegetables.

The small areas under cultivation by the sailors lie a short distance to the west of the steamers. The vegetables which they are growing include peas, radishes, onions, lettuce and celery.

Both ships were gaily bedecked with flags yesterday in celebration of the fall of Kut-El-Amara in Mesopotamia, and other British reverses of the past week.

TAX LISTING BEGINS

Rush of Business First Morning Keeps Listers Busy.

Tax Listers Walter Rutland and B. F. King, Sr., were kept busy all yesterday, with the rush of business which started early in the day at the county court house. The work is expected to keep them on the jump right up to June 1.

The listing of property is a simpler process than has been the case in the past, copies of last year's lists having been made, in many cases all that is necessary for the property owner to do is to sign his name and take the oath.

From the way things started out yesterday, it is believed that the people of the city have at last awakened to the advantages of doing their listing early and avoid the rush. It is thought that the majority of the property owners will get this particular job over with during the early part of the month.

MADAME PEVSNER TO SPEAK AT TEMPLE ISRAEL TONIGHT

Under Auspices of Temple Sisterhood on "Woman's Mission in the World."

Mme. Bella Pevsner, of Jaffa, Palestine, will lecture this evening at 8 o'clock in Temple Israel o nthe subject of "The Woman's Mission in the Struggling World." The lecture is given under the auspices of the Temple Sisterhood.

In this lecture Mme. Pevsner will deal with femininity from an historical viewpoint, and will also emphasize woman's relationship with all the vital issues of modern times.

Mme. Pevsner has made a comprehensive study of the equal suffrage movement as applied to social conditions, and her views will naturally be listened to with great interest by the women of this city.

In one of her lectures which was widely quoted by newspapers, she pays the following tribute to the influence of womanhood:

"Man has always been guided by woman. He is born of woman, and throughout his life depends on her. All the greatest men of history were made so by women. They had great mothers, great wives or sisters, great women friends, and the influence of these ruled the destiny of the greatest heroes of history. Woman is a superior being to man, and her energies should be all to elevate him. She is the mother of man's children, and her duty is to teach them as they grow, the true sentiments of life, so that when they rise to man's estate they will represent women and their influence."

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mr. G. A. Huggins, of Scott's Hill was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

—Among the North Carolina arrivals at the Imperial Hotel yesterday were: Mrs. B. A. Robeson, Chadbourn; J. C. Mewsen, Sloop Point; D. H. Colton, Winston-Salem; Morris C. Barfield, Fayetteville; W. R. Sanders, Rocky Mount; O. K. Nimocks, Mt. Airy.

on display in the office of the county treasurer and was viewed with much interest by the commissioners.

Mr. R. A. Burnett, superintendent of roads, in his monthly report stated that there are now three gangs of convicts at work, these being located at different points in the county. Camp No. 2 was moved twice during the month, spending 12 days at the Williston school and the remainder of the month at work on the Winter Park road. Gang No. 3 is an extra force and is kept at the main camp at night. They worked six days on the Castle Haynes road and finished the work of improving the Gordon road. Gang No. 4 is known as the repair gang and is also kept at the main camp at night. They worked 14 days in hauling sandclay on the Gordon road and four days patching the Castle Haynes road and two days patching the Federal Point road and two days on the Scott's Hill road.

Mr. P. H. Rasberry, superintendent of the county home, reported that there are now 28 inmates in the county home. Farm work is progressing nicely. Attention is called to the need of additional help in the colored ward.

Mr. Fred M. Rivenbark, superintendent of the county work house, furnished the board with a very concrete illustration of the need of a reformatory in his report, stating that the courts had sent to him for safe keeping ten boys during the past month, who were under 17 years of age and some of them as low as nine years of age. Mr. Rivenbark very wisely points out that these boys should be kept in a place more suitable for one of their tender years. There are now 76 prisoners in the work house, 28 of them having been received during the month and 30 having been discharged.

—Among the arrivals at the Hotel Wilmington yesterday were: B. B. Anderson, Tabor; R. A. Poole, Jr., Jacksonville; W. B. Dunn, Durham; H. C. Moore, Kinston; E. M. Nance, Fort Bluff; A. S. Cooper, Raleigh; T. D. McLean, Aberdeen; W. B. Bleason Hamlet.

MUST NOMINATE A MAN OF ROOSEVELT IDEALS

Oh, No, Not Necessarily the Colonel Himself, by Any Means.

Does Not Believe He Ought to be Nominated Unless "They Are Prepared to Wholeheartedly" Adopt His Platform.

New York, May 1.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt, on his return here tonight from Chicago, issued a statement expressing gratification with the reception of his views on "preparedness, national duty and Americanism," in the Middle West. Colonel Roosevelt declared he is not interested in the political fortunes of himself or others and, after outlining the principles advocated in recent speeches, said:

"It cannot be said too often that this is a time of crisis in the nation's career. We are now laying down the foundation and the controlling lines of a new era in our history. Everything I can do will be done to see that the people West and East, realize the facts and act accordingly.

"By no act of mine, by no word of mine, has this grave question been involved in factional politics. In every state in which the law governs such matters I have promptly withdrawn my name from all factional struggles. * * *

"I have not expressed and do not intend to express myself as being for or against any man.

"As regards myself, I do not believe that the delegates ought to nominate me at Chicago unless they are prepared wholeheartedly and without reserve to make the fight along the lines above outlined. I am fighting for certain great and vital principles.

"Those who take the stand in such a matter because of factional or personal prejudice are either lacking in patriotism or else are blind tot the tremendous forces at work the world over. In the midst of a tragedy without parallel in the world's vision, the work to be done is not that of the politician, but of the patriot.

"For that reason I most earnestly hope that the delegates who go to Chicago will nominate some man on whom Republicans and Progressives can combine and who, moreover, can be heartily supported by all independent citizens and particularly by all independent Democrats who are loyal to the nationalism of Andrew Jackson and who are prepared to put the vital honor and interest of this nation above all mere partisan considerations. I hope they will choose a man upon whom all can unite and who, if elected, we can be absolutely certain will put the principles above set forth into actual effect in the government of the country."

SAYS HOT WATER WASHES POISONS FROM THE LIVER

Everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it, before breakfast.

To feel as fine as the proverbial fiddle, we must keep the liver washed clean, almost every morning, to prevent its sponge-like pores from clogging with indigestible material, sour bile and poisonous toxins, says a noted physician.

If you get headaches, it's your liver. If you catch cold easily, it's your liver. If you wake up with a bad taste, furred tongue, nasty breath or stomach becomes rancid, it's your liver. Sallow skin, muddy complexion, watery eyes, all denote liver uncleanliness. Your liver is the most important, also the most abused and neglected organ of the body. Few know its function or how to release the dammed-up body waste, bile and toxins. Most folks resort to violent calomel, which is a dangerous, salivating chemical which can only be used occasionally because it accumulates in the tissues, also attacks the bones.

Every man and woman, sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, to wash from the liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, the poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Limestone phosphate does not restrict the diet like calomel, because it can not salivate, for it is harmless and you can eat anything afterwards. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, and any pharmacist will sell you a quarter pound, which is sufficient for a demonstration of how hot water and limestone phosphate cleans, stimulates and freshens the liver, keeping you feeling fit day in and day out.

How are your biscuits baking?

If your biscuits are not baking as light and fine as they used to it's due to rain-damaged wheat.

This season's crop was the worst in 50 years. Flour from such wheat lacks strength; doesn't rise properly because it's fermented by too much moisture.

But you can get flour made from highest grade wheat. By sending our own men to far off sections and paying premium prices, we got enough of the best wheat to keep Valier's Dainty Flour up to the highest quality. Now, especially, you ought to get this superfine flour. It may cost a trifle more, but it is guaranteed to make better biscuits, cake, pastry etc.

THOUSAN MEMBERS OF FRATERNAL ORDERS AT "HOME NIGHT" SERVICE

ministers offered a dedicatory prayer that each one of the young people might have strength and courage to do God's will.

"I remember the day when I was younger than some of these when I was dedicated to the ministry and I have never forgotten it," the evangelist prayed fervently. Speaking to those who had thus offered themselves, Dr. Chapman declared that "I'd rather preach the Gospel, knowing the world as I do, than to do anything else, I know. I have been preaching since 1882 and I have met many great men and some of them I know intimately but I have never had occasion to regret my choice."

Men Come Forward.

Dr. Chapman's appeal to the men in the audience was very clear and definite. "Every man who can say that I want my life to be right with God from henceforth, come forward just now and give me your hand." Mounting a chair at the foot of the platform, the evangelist greeted the hundreds that came forward. Men surged about him and it was impossible for him to shake hands with the men as they came in hundreds up the aisle. Turning to the ministers he asked them to assist him.

While the evangelist was shaking hands with the men, Mr. Alexander led the choir in the singing of several selections. Up to the left aisle in a body come the Knights Templars in uniform and there was a clapping of hands. The men were still coming forward when Dr. Chapman quickly asked those in the audience who really meant to be Christians and serve God to stand up and say with him, "I will." There was a chorus of voices as hundreds of men rose to their feet.

Men Promise Their Help.

"Now you men who will promise to write your minister tonight, if you have one, and if you haven't one, why pick out one tonight, and tell him that he can count on you, you men who will do this tonight, let me see your hands."

Several hundred responded and Dr. Chapman declared that he believed that a revival could be started here which would be felt throughout the entire State.

After his appeal to the men, Dr. Chapman asked the women to stand up, who desired to pledge themselves to Christian lives and while there were not as many of these as there had been of the men, the attendance of women being smaller, the number was several hundred.

More than two hundred fathers and mothers lifted their hands as evidence of their expectation to have family prayer in their homes in response to the evangelist's request at the close of his sermon. There were more than a thousand men and women who asked that they might have the prayers of all Christian people.

A Touching Sermon.

Taking his text from Proverbs 12:7, "The home of the righteous shall stand," the evangelist in simple words but evident deep earnestness pleaded for Christian homes, for Christian fathers and Christian mothers, and if such is the case, said he, there need be no fear about the children. They will respond to the Christian influences of a home consecrated and dedicated to God. He called on fathers to lead in establishing such homes and then in tender words that gripped his audience with wonderful force, the preacher pictured the love of a Godly mother and the influence she can exert over her children.

As he gave examples of the influence of Christian homes, told of the love of a newsboy for his mother, illustrated the love of a mother for her boy, there were tears in the eyes of hundreds of men and women but they wept silently. In the stillness while the evangelist spoke his message across a few feet from the speaker at the head of an aisle lay a tiny tot, sleeping peacefully amid the multitude while its mother listened to the words of the preacher.

Services Today.

There will be a quiet hour service conducted this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church by Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander, this taking the place of the afternoon service at the Tabernacle. This afternoon at 3:15 o'clock, Rev. C. T. Schaeffer will give another of his illustrated talks to children. Tonight at 7:30 o'clock there will be a service in the Tabernacle to which all are invited. Dr. Chapman will preach on the subject, "The Prodigal Daughter." All the sermons this week will center about the home. This afternoon a religious census of the city will be taken. The Confederate Veterans, Sons of Veterans and Daughters of Confederate Veterans will attend the services in a body tonight.

Announcement was made last night that Mr. Albert Brown, the soloist, who sang at the service last evening "The Pilot Song", will sing "Shadows," this evening at the request of a large number of people.

Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander and members of the evangelistic party went to Southport yesterday to conduct services at that place.

Dr. Chapman's Sermon.

Dr. Chapman last night took for his text, "The home of the righteous shall stand."—Proverbs 12:7. The sermon in part follows:

"What a gracious promise! How encouraging it is to everyone, especially to the people who may feel that they are receiving the least consideration.

"What sort of a house is going to stand? Not of necessity the rich, although there is no reason why the richest man should not be the most of a saint if he has secured his money honestly. Not of necessity the wise, yet it is true that the world's wisest men have ordered their lives according to the teachings of Jesus and have laid their foundations upon the Bible as the Word of God. Not of necessity the great, although it is true that the greatest men the world has known have been followers of Christ.

What Houses Will Stand.

"If the house of the rich, the wise and the great alone should stand, some of us would be exceedingly discouraged, but it is the house of the righteous, and this takes us all in alike, and we are encouraged because when we build it is for eternity.

"There are some beautiful pictures of such homes in the Bible, for example, that of Abraham sitting at his tent door when the tent, because of the people who dwell in it, is more to be desired than a palace without contentment. When the three angels appear and speak to Abraham concerning Sarah, his wife, it is interesting is it not? to realize that they knew his wife's name, and it is true that God knows all about the house of the righteous, where it is builded and how. He knows the names of the family circle. He understands the needs of all and loves to meet them.

"The home of Rebekah where the old servant of Abraham is feasted and where they say to her, 'Wilt thou go with this man?' and she goes forth seated upon a camel, travels in royal state over the hills and plains until she meets Isaac, her beloved, and they together found a home, influenced, no doubt, by her father.

"The home of the Shumanite where Elisha was a welcome visitor and where in the time of trouble they felt free to call upon him for assistance, and when the boy whom they loved was dead, they felt free to ask him to come and give them comfort.

"As a matter of fact, most of the homes or Israel were ideal. When the children of Israel passed over the Jordan into Canaan they erected a pillar of stones and it was said in future days the children would say, 'What mean ye by these stones?' and the story of Israel's triumphs would be told. It was the custom of every Israelite father to rehearse to his children the stories of Israel's experiences, and thereafter the homes were beautiful.

"We find the same beautiful pictures in the New Testament. One home alone needs to be mentioned, that of Mary and Martha and Lazarus. The place where the precious ointment was poured out, the fragrance of which we detect today, but best of all the place where the fragrance of love was ever apparent and where Jesus was a welcome guest.

"So many things are built into the structure of such homes; faith in God, loyalty to Jesus, love for God and for those who are round about us; gentleness in all our dealings with those less fortunate than ourselves; grace, which makes the life beautiful and the atmosphere of the home like heaven; sympathy, which means the placing of one's self in the position of others and sorrowing with them as if their burdens were our own; kindness, which is being always considerate of others and seeking to make others happy.

Beautiful Description.

Dr. Henry Van Dyke wrote a beautiful thing descriptive of such homes when he said:

"'I turned an English poet's book
And found upon the page
Stone walls do not a prison make
Nor iron bars a cage.

"'Yes, that is true and something more
You will find where'er you roam,
That marble floors and gilded walls
Can never make a home.

"'But every home where love abides
And friendship is a guest,
Is surely home, and home sweet home,
For here the soul can rest.'

"Why does the house of the righteous stand?

"Because it is properly founded according to the Word of God.

"Its foundation is the Word of God. One has only to study the Scriptures to read that God not only set the solitary in families, but that His teaching regarding the home runs all through the Bible.

Father Must Lead.

"In such homes fathers must be priests, the spiritual leaders; head and foremost in all that has to do with the spiritual development of the household.

"In the state of Ohio dwelt a man with his wife and children. They lived upon a farm small in size but large in its mortgage inedebtedness. When the aged father died there was little or nothing left for his wife or his children except the memory that this aged man had walked as the representative of God in his home, He began each day with prayer, and with his household gathered about him he closed the day in the same fashion. It is not surprising to know that he has given to the Lord two sons and one daughter whose names are known for righteousness wherever language is known. 'What saved you?' was the question asked of a well known man who was a Christian. He said: 'My father's wrestling in prayer for me at the family altar.' Family worship is not a difficult service to hold in the home. A single verse of Scripture while you are seated at the table; a simple prayer which includes the needs of your household; this would do, and your children would never forget it.

"Such a home is great because it is held by the promises of God; the promises are unto you and to our children, so the Bible states.

Influence of a Mother.

"Years ago Robert Moffat, who became the celebrated missionary, was walking as a lad on the highway of Scotland, and as his mother turned to say good-bye to him she said, 'Robert, you must promise me one thing.' He was unwilling to do it until he knew for what the promise was to be made. At last his mother said, 'Robert, trust me and give me your word that you will do what I ask.' 'Very well, mother,' he said, 'I will.' And she said, 'You are going into a wicked world to live and you will be far away from your home and your mother. Promise me that you will begin every day with God and close every day in the same way,' and he said, 'Mother, I will promise.' She kissed him, and he says that her kiss influenced him throughout his entire life.

"Mothers must be saints if the homes where they live are to stand against the influence of the world, the snares of the devil and the awful downward pull of life.

Two Homes.

"One is a so-called up-to-date home. It is located on the best avenue in the city. It stands for a high degree of social culture. The head of the household is a so-called Christian, but he is too busy in commercial life to pay much attention to the church or his home obligations. He has little or nothing to say to his children about Christ. The mother has her name upon the church books, but she is a social leader; she is an expert at cards and the leader in all social dances.

"Somehow in such an atmosphere you cannot say very much about God and His love to the children, and they grow up in such a home without thinking of the church, without realizing Christ's power, and many a sad story in American history is written because such homes as this I have described send out boys and girls poorly prepared to meet life's struggles.

"The other home is in the country. It is very poor; the father is a farmer, the mother does her own work with the assistance of her two daughters. One night when the son of the household is away the daughters say, 'Mother, we think Ed should go to college. We will make any sacrifice to make this possible. We will get along without any additional help in the house and save the money.' And the old father, hearing their conversation, exclaims, 'I will do the same thing. I will make sacrifices, too. The boy must get an education.'

"He is away at school after awhile. He goes conscientiously through his work, and when he comes to the graduation day he has taken the honors of his class. The professors with their queer caps and gowns are on the platform, and Ed stands to deliver his oration. Up in the gallery an old father, and aged mother, and two sisters, illy clad, their faces shining, are leaning forward to catch every word and when the honors are bestowed and the medal given to their boy he takes it in his hands, walks down from the platform, through the crowd, up into the gallery and kneeling down beside his mother puts the ribbon which ran through the medal around her neck and says: 'This is yours; it belongs to you all. I should never have had it but for you.' And the old father with tears running down his cheeks turns to his wife to say: 'What a great investment we have made and oh, how happy we are.'

"If the house of the righteous is to stand it must be ordered according to God's plan. The children must be trained but the parents must have a teacher for themselves who is more than human. We cannot begin with them too soon.

"One of my friends went home from such a service as this and spoke to his wife saying: 'I think we ought to take a stand for our children and claim them for Christ,' and such a card as this was prepared: 'As members of this household we do this

CHAPMANISMS

Home, Sweet Home, be it ever so humble, there is no place like Home.

No home is complete without Christ as a member of the household.

Sometimes the richest homes are centers of greatest influence for good. Sometimes the same homes send forth streams of influence deadening in their power.

Sometimes the home where there is poverty is like Heaven, and sometimes it is like hell.

The Bible has many beautiful home pictures.

Many things enter into the structure of a home, such as faith, love, gentleness, grace, sympathy, kindness.

America needs a revival of old-fashioned home religion.

Some of us are not giving our children the same chance that our parents gave us.

If some successful men today had started from homes such as they are giving their children, they would have gone to the devil.

Many a man owes all he is to a Christian father and mother, and he boasts that he is not a Christian.

I pity the father who has never prayed in the presence of his children. I feel sorry for the child that has never heard his father or mother pray.

Old-fashioned family worship would cure many home evils.

There is this to remember when you pray before your household—you must live your prayer.

The card table in so many so-called Christian homes is the determining factor in many a child's ruin.

Many a boy has become a professional gambler who learned to play cards at home.

It is possible for a man to be a priest in his household, that is, not an ordained minister, but the spiritual leader of his family.

This city will never be better until its homes are better.

Homes will never be better until we seek to please God by the way we live.

—From sermon by Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, at the Tabernacle last night.

Champion Pugilist Converted.

We went to Tasmania for two campaigns—Lunceston and Hobart. Crowds taxed the largest buildings we could secure, and, as everywhere, people were just eager to hear the Gospel. I remember one night, after the after-meeting was over, Dr. Corsey called on me to sing a solo, a thing he did not usually do, as I had already sung once that evening. But the people didn't seem to want to go home. I caught up my book and sang, "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight?" A poor, drunken fellow had just stepped in through the far door, 150 feet away from me. He had heard nothing of the sermon, but had just caught up the strain of

"Go for my wandering boy tonight,
Go search for him where you will;
And bring him to me with all his blight
And tell him I love him still."

He said, "That's for me," and started down the aisle, came to the front with a worker and gave his heart to God.

One night in the same building the champaign heavyweight pugilist of Tasmania, Jim Burke, and a member of the Tasmanian parliament, confessed Christ. In a letter to a friend, written some time after his conversion, Mr. Burke wrote:

"I have won the biggest fight I ever had. I have in my time won many great victories, but the greatest victory I ever won was when I beat the devil."

TABERNACLE NOTES

(Contributed.)

"As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

Wilmington should contain many family altars, as the result of the great Home Night service at the Tabernacle last night.

Over 300 boys and girls met at the High School last evening with Rev. C. T. Schaeffer and Rev. Andrew Howell, and marched in a body to the Tabernacle where they filled a large section that had been reserved for them. They played an important part in the service, for from their ranks came many who volunteered for special service, if the call for such should come from God.

The first of the morning services conducted by Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander will be held at 10:30 this morning in the First Presbyterian church. These morning services will take the place of the afternoon meetings at the Tabernacle. The second of the series is scheduled for Wednesday morning, but there will be no meeting on the morning of Thursday, that giving place to the great meeting at the Tabernacle in the afternoon for aged people, to which everybody is invited.

The audience made its best vocal effort last night on the famous old hymn, "Alas, and Did My Saviour Bleed." It was an effort that so roused the song leader, whose task of getting an audience to sing on a hot night is no easy one, to the point of commendation. "That's the way to sing!" said Mr. Alexander. "They tell me there are two or three people in town who wont come to these meetings. Let us make them hear this next verse." The audience responded nobly, and the strains of the grand old hymn might have been heard several blocks away.

Mr. Alexander made an apt selection of pieces for his song service last night and every hymn sung had some relation to the character of the service. The song leader, with his heart set on the main purport of the meeting, so shapes his part of the service that it serves as a kind of preparatory service for the latter part of the meeting. He creates the atmosphere for the sermon and, as Dr. Chapman has said, makes it easier for him to preach. At no stage was this so noticeable as when the more lively strains of "Jesus Passed Through Jericho", gave place to the quiet, dignified appeal of "Just as I Am Without One Plea," and the very order of the hymns brought the appeal home with a double force.

The great Home service of last night will long be remembered in Wilmington. It was a meeting rich in results of an unusual nature. No one who witnessed the extraordinary and moving spectacle of no less than 186 girls and young women, and almost a hundred young men, kneeling in front of the platform, dedicating their lives to God's service, and signifying their willingness to preach or to become missionaries if the call should come, will easily forget it. It was a sight that brought tears to many eyes, and gladdened the hearts of the ministers. One of the most keenly affected was Dr. Chapman himself, who prayed under evident difficulty, so strong was his emotion.

Wilmington is still putting up records. The greatest delegation of fraternity men that Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander have ever had, came to the Tabernacle last night. It comprised the members of every order represented in the city, and included the women of the Rebekah and of the Daughters of Liberty. This delegation, or the composite parts of it, gathered near the City Hall and when the men began to march two abreast along Third street, the line extended for several blocks. The delegation occupied almost the whole of the center section of the Tabernacle and formed a solid core for the great Home Night audience.

Dr. Chapman at last night's service asked that the choir might sing a verse or two of "Jesus Passed Through Jericho," about which he related an amusing incident. He said that a lady had told him she discovered her little girl searching for a certain hymn in the hymn book, which she did not seem able to find. "Why," said the mother, "What hymn do you want, my dear?" And the little girl replied, "Jesus Passed Through Mexico." The incident recalls the story of that other home, where the family were singing the Alexander hymns round the piano, each choosing a hymn in turn. It came round to the small boy of the house, and they asked him what hymn he would like. "Oh," said the young hopeful, "sing that sparrow song, 'No Birds in Yonder'."

Dr. Chapman's sermon of last night, from the text: "The house of the righteous shall stand," was an overwhelming appeal for the sanctity of the home. He pleaded for family worship in the home. "The home shall be right," said the preacher, "when the father stands as a priest in his own household, when the mother is true, and as God meant she should be, when the children belong to God and are true to their parents. When our homes are bound together by the love of God in Christ, then the house shall stand." His sermon, which closed with a three-fold appeal met with a wonderful response. When Dr. Chapman asked all fathers and mothers who would like to ask for prayer that they might be given the strength to start family worship in their homes, to stand—literally hundreds of people, the great majority of whom were men, rose to their feet in all parts of the building.

One bright spot in a day filled with sunshine was the greeting accorded the Chapman-Alexander party on arriving at Southport. On the wharf was a large crowd of boys and girls, all beautifully dressed for the occasion, and the girls each carrying a small bouquet of flowers. As the steamer berthed this merry-faced choir broke into the chorus "Shine," and as they sang with faces wreathed in smiles they held up the flowers, so that it seemed to the passengers on the steamer that they were shining in several ways at once. Then, at a signal, the strains of "Shine' 'gave place to the stirring melody of the campaign song of the Pocket Testament League:

"Take it wherever you go,
God's message of love,
Sent down from above,
Take it wherever you go."

SCHAEFFER [illegible]KS ON DOLLS.

Crowd of Little [illegible] Enjoy Talk Given at T[illegible]nacle.

Hundreds of little girls clamored and scores of little boys ran foot races down the aisles at the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon to help Rev. C. T. Schaeffer in his great missionary lecture to the children about "Dolls."

About 1,000 were present, and at the conclusion of the lecture forty or more little girls who stood in front of the pulpit were clasping little American, foreign and heathen dolls, which had been gathered from the various countries of the world.

Mr. Scaeffer's parents were missionaries to the Indians, and he told them that at 4 years of age he had seen Indians returning to camp with scalps at their belts. French baby dolls, Eskimo, Indian, Dutch, Italian, Mexican, Hindu, Lapland, Scotch, Japanese, Russian, Zulu, Chinese, Normandy, Filipino, pickaninny dolls, were presented and missionary talks given with each one.

THEATRICAL

Robert Mantell and Genevieve Hamper, those two intense dramatic stars who presented at the Royal some weeks ago there last big feature, "The Unfaithful Wife," are seen again today in their latest William Fox photoplay supreme, "Green Eyed Monster" one of the strongest, most thoroughly exciting dramatic productions of the entire year of photoplay making.

"The Green Eyed Monster" has as its basic theme, the curse of jealousy, telling in graphic manner to what length the uncurbed monster of jealousy will go, and what trouble and damnation can be caused thereby to the one so afflicted and to those near to him. The story deals in graphic and startling manner with a man who covets the wife of his own brother, beautiful Genevieve Hamper being the wife, Robert Mantell the husband and Stuart Holmes the envious brother. The story tells of how the wife removes every obstacle to her hand and then falls a victim to her own self, and is one of the most tense, exciting and gripping stories ever enacted in a photoplay form.

Stuart Holmes as the "villain" plays his usual finished role. The same must be said of the other members of the all star Fox cast, which includes pauline Barry, Henry Leone and Charles Crumpton.

"America Saved From War."

Today, when Uncle Sam is momentarily expecting the tidings which will either plunge us into a bloody war or will do much towards perpetuating universal peace among the nations, the seventh episode of the great "Graft" serial, entitled "America Saved From War" should be one of the timeliest features seen in a photoplay theatre in some time. "America Saved From War" gives Harry Carey and Jane Novak, the leaders, the opportunity for some strong and telling work, an opportunity of which they take full advantage in making this chapter the greatest yet of this sterling serial photoplay drama.

There's another great drawing card on today's bill at the Bijou, a great two-reel comedy production, starring Rosemary Theby and Harry C. Myers, which, by the way may be the last picture in which this couple will appear for Universal, as they have recently gone to a big feature producing concern. "Lathered Truth" tells the story of the trials an dtribulations of a movie director, and lets you in on a side of picture-making on which the general public heretofore has been left in the dark. A supposed society queen, enacted by Rosemary, turns out to be a female barbaress and the expert latheress makes an ideal movie star in this great two-reel comedy feature.

Grand Bids Strong Today.

Today the Grand makes a strong bid for the patronage of amusement lovers presenting a great show, starring some of the biggest photoplay stars of the whole universe.

The programme for today, an exceptionally notable one for five cents, by the way, is headed by a great three-par Vitagraph Broadway Feature, "The Return of Maurice Donnelly," a superb dramatic masterpicture in three reels, starring in the leading roles, Leah Baird, one of the old-time favorite actresses of the silent drama, one of the most beautiful and talented women on the scren, supported by Mary Maurice, another strong favorite with Vitagraphers, one of the strongest favorites among the juvenile leads now in pictures. "The Return of Maurice Donelly" is a stirring drama, full of exciting and unexpected incidants, replete with some of the greatest dramatic acting you have seen in a long while.

Beautiful Isabel Rea is a co-star with William J. Butler, one of the strongest dramatic stars in pictures, in a great Biograph drama, "Toys of Destiny," a story full of the true heart punch and interesting throughout.

EXTRAORDINARY DAY AT MT. OLIVE WAS LAST SUNDAY

Commencement Sermon and Two Memorial Services Held.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mount, Olive, N. C., May 1.—Sunday was a day of more than ordinary interest to people here—the beginning of the commencement exercises of the graded school with the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. James H. Frizelle, pastor of the Methodist church here, delivered in the auditorium of the graded school building, at 11 o'clock; and, in the afternoon, two memorial services in honor of the late Eli R. Wilson, a well-known attorney of this place, whose death occurred a little more than a year ago, resulting from a fall on the pavement in the streets at Goldsboro, which were held by Mingo Masonic lodge, of near Dunn, and by the local camp of Woodmen of the world, to both of which orders deceased belonged.

At 2 o'clock, the memorial services conducted by the Masonic order were held in the Methodist church, conducted by Rev. Jacob H. Hill, of Goldsboro, the local Masonic lodge participating therein with the Mingo lodge.

Immediately following the close of these services, other services by the local camp of Woodmen were held at the grave of the deceased member, which consisted of the unveiling of a monument to his memory and the delivery of an address by Rev. D. W. Arnold, pastor of the First Christian church, of Goldsboro.

LITTLE SON OF REV. B. H. MELTON KILLED IN RICHMOND

Former Jones County Man Bereaved by an Automobile Accident.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Richmond, Va., May 1.—Funeral services for 11-year-old Benjamin H. Milton, Jr., who was fatally injured Saturday afternoon when struck by an automobile playing baseball in the street, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence, 2211 West Grace street. The lad was a son of the Rev. B. H. Melton, pastor of the First Christian church, Wilson, N. C., from 1897 to 1902, and was the pride of his father's heart as well as his mother's.

Thomas Fulton, negro driver of the auto, claims that the accident was unavoidable. The boy died last night at Stuart Circle hospital.

Dr. Melton is a native of Jones county, N. C., and has two sisters, Mrs. F. M. Taylor, and Mrs. Bettie Bryant, of Pollocksville, N. C., and a brother, John Melton, of Onslow county. His wife was Miss Eva Kinsey, of Lenoir county. There are three other children, two girls and a boy.

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months.

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

Women Sufferers Need Swamp-Root

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness and may be despondent and irritable.

Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, restores health to the kidneys and is just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Get a fifty cent or one dollar bottle immediately from any drug store.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation, send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing, be sure and mention the Wilmington Daily Star.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION AND NEW REGISTRATION.

Notice is hereby given that the Council of the City of Wilmington, by an ordinance duly adopted on the 26th day of April, 1916, called and ordered to be held in the City of Wilmington on Saturday, the 3rd day of June, 1916, a special election for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of said City an ordinance adopted by said Council on the 26th day of April, 1916, by which ordinance the tax ordinance of said City for the fiscal year ending May 31st, 1917, and previously adopted by said Council, is amended, said amending ordinance fixing the total tax rate for said City for said fiscal year at $1.85 upon the one hundred dollars property valuation, and authorizing said Council to levy and collect as a part of the total rate aforesaid a special tax of 10c. on the one hundred dollars property valuation, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose of improving and extending the water works system of said City, the purchase of additional fire fighting apparatus for the Fire Department of said City, the improvement of Princess Street in said City, and the establishment or creation of an industrial or manufacturing suburb to said City.

By said amending ordinance the propositions to improve said waterworks system and purchase for said Fire Department additional apparatus, the improvement of Princess Street and the establishment of said industrial or manufacturing suburb are provided to be voted upon separately.

The said Council has further ordered as provided by law an entirely new registration of the voters of said City for said election; the following named polling places have been designated and registrars and judges of election have been appointed for the holding and conducting of said election, namely:

First Ward Precinct—Polling place, Engine House, 4th and Campbell; Registrar, W. H. Howe; Judges, James Elkins, R. J. Darden, Sr.

Second Ward Precinct—Polling place, Court House; Registrar, W. W. Hodges; Judges, D. H. Howes, Jr., W. J. Meredith.

Third Ward Precinct—Polling place, Giblem Lodge, upstairs; Registrar, A. G. Hankins; Judges, H. E. Bonitz, Coy Hewett.

Fourth Ward Precinct—Polling place, McClellan's Stables; Registrar, J. B. King; Judges, T. D. Love, S. Zeigler.

First Division, Fifth Ward Precinct—Polling place, New Engine House; Registrar, J. E. Taylor; Judges, A. W. Branch, Thos. Lawson.

Second Division, Fifth Ward Precinct—Polling place, Old Engine House; Registrar, T. G. Landen; Judges, J. B. Fales, Wm. Creasy.

Sixth Ward Precinct—Polling place, Mann's Store; Registrar, J. F. Mann; Judges, W. L. Holt, W. A. Woods.

Said election will be held between the hours of sunrise and sunset on the said 3rd day of June, 1916.

Each registrar will, between the hours of 9:00 o'clock A. M. and 5:00 o'clock P. M., on each day (Sunday excepted) for seven days preceding the day for the closing of the registration books keep open said books for the registration of the voters in their respective precincts, and said registration books will be open from 9:00 o'clock A. M. until 9:00 o'clock P. M. on each Saturday during said registration period and shall be closed for registration on the 2nd Saturday before the 3rd day of June, 1916. No registration will be allowed on said election day except to such persons as shall give satisfactory evidence to the registrar and judges of election that he has become of the age of twenty-one years, or otherwise has become qualified to register and vote since the registration books closed for registration.

On the second Saturday before the election the registration books will be kept open at the polling places in the voting precincts for the inspection of electors and to enable challenges to be made to the right of any person to vote in said election whose name appears on said books, and if any person is objected to notice will be given him and a hearing granted, as provided by law.

The Council has appointed the registrars and judges of election as hereinbefore stated, and caused them to be notified of their appointment, and required them to take the oath required by law, and will cause to be furnished all necessary books and arrange for the ballots, and will fill all vacancies occurring either as to registrars or judges as provided by law, and will receive returns from said election as provided by law.

By order of the Council of the City of Wilmington.

SHARP ADVANCE IN COTTON

General List Firm, 13 to 17 Points Up —July at Highest Point Since February.

New York, May 1.—Reports of unfavorable weather conditions in the South and of continued firmness in the spot markets today led to a sharp advance in cotton prices. July sold up to 12.30, the highest since February ,and the general list closed firm, 13 to 17 points up.

Early cables were disappointing, but Liverpool soon firmed up, and after opening unchanged to three points higher, the local market developed increasing strength. The firm tone of the stock market was accompanied by considerable Wall Street buying and New Orleans was also a buyer here. Realizing by old longs on scale up was sufficient to cause reactions of 2 or 3 points during the early afternoon, but offerings readil yabsorbed, and the high point was reached in the late trading when May sold at 12.15 and October at 12.40, or 15 to 18 points net higher. The close was within a point or two of the best. International politics came in for some discussion but its influence did no more than to restrict demand on the bullish weather an dcrop conditions. The official forecasts were for unsettled weather and lower temperatures in the eastern belt, while frost was expected in parts of the western belt.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

Advanced Almost $1 a Bale—Forecast of Frost in Southwest.

New Orleans, May 1.—Cotton was advanced almost $1 a bale here today by buying stimulated by he forecast of frost in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and by the higher spot prices. Trading was fairly active and the undertone was firm. The opening was at the advance and in the first half hour prices were lifted 10 to 14 points. The market was strongest late in the afternoon following the quoting of spot prices 12 points up, which sent middling to 1. cents. At the best prices were 17 to 21 points up ,with the close 16 to 21 points up.

The chief influence was the outlook for a fall in temperatures as the result of the cold wave now crossing the country. Political news was considered less favorabl ethan last week. Spot holders refused to trade except at the advance and sellers were not willing to operate on the short side with the premium of spots over futures showing a tendency to widen.

Closed steady. Closing bid: May 12.25; July 12.16; October 12.22; December 12.34; January 12.43.

Spot cotton steady 12 points up. Sales on the spot 1,770, to arrive 635, middling 12.00.

WHEAT SHARPLY HIGHER

Advance Caused by Unseasonably Cold Weather—Curtailment of Spring Seeding.

Chicago, May 1. — Unseasonably cold rainy weather that rendered certain a further curtailment of spring seeding led to sharply higher prices today in wheat. No important reactions took place and the market closed strong, 1¾@1⅞ to 2⅞ net higher, with May at 1.16¾ and July at 1.17⅞. Corn finished unchanged to ⅛c. higher; oats up ⅛ to 1c., and provisions with gains of 10 to 35 cents.

Mercantile Marines Again Dominant Feature at New High Records —Bonds Steady.

New York, May 1.—Regardless of week-end developments, such as increasing labor disturbances and the British defeat in the East, today's market continued its upward march, Mercantile Marines again being the dominant feature at new high records.

Combined dealings in Marine preferred and common amounted to 230,000 shares, of about one-quarter of the whole. Marine preferred made an extreme gain of 7 3-4 points at 98 and the common 4 1-2 to 29 1-4. Other shipping shares were strong, Pacific Mail gaining 3 1-4 and United two points.

Recognizing war shares regained some of the recent prominence, Crucible Steel, Baldwin and American Locomotive, American Car, Rubbers and Metals and minor equipments and industrials rising 1 to 4 points. Mexican Petroleum rose 3 1-2 and American Smeltings maximum gain was 2 1-2. Rains were quiet until the final hour when Reading led a general rise in that group on reports of a settlement of the anthracite coal controversy. Total sales 920,000 shares.

Advices from leading railway centers showed marked gains in tonnage movements over last year.

Lack of News regarding the German situation was considered favorable and the collapse of the Irish rebellion was reflected in the better tone of International markets.

Bonds were steady. Total sales par value $2,990,000.

Panama coupons were 1 1-8 lower on call.

FATAL FIRES TOO FREQUENT.

Commissioner Young Calls Matter to People's Attention.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 1.—Commissioner of Insurance James R. Young directs attention to the fact that fires in which there are losses of human life are being reported with unusual frequency in various sections of the State, stressing necessity for observance of much greater precautions, both in fire prevention and in preservation of life where fires do occur. The recent burning of L. E. Mitchell, of High Point, in the Neil Hotel, Winston, is a very recent case in point.

FRENCH PASSENGER SHIP FIRED UPON

Torpedo Missed the Patria by About 10 Feet in the Mediterranean, Officers Say.

ARRIVES AT NEW YORK

At Least One American Aboard, According to Passenger List—Submarine Was Not Seen, but Torpedo's Wake Was.

New York, May 1.—The French passenger steamer Patria, which arrived here today from Naples and Palermo, reported that on her last outward voyage at 10 A. M., on April 5, she was the target of a submarine torpedo attack in the Mediterranean. The torpedo missed the ship by about ten feet, the officers said.

The Patria was at the time passing Cape Spartavento, the southerly part of Sardinia, and running at full speed. The submarine did not show itself. The Patrja was not armed at the time, but a gun was placed on her after deck when she arrived in Naples and was ready for action during the trip finished here today. This is the second time the Patria has escaped destruction by a torpedo. On her arrival here March 16 she reported that she had narrowly missed being hit by a torpedo off the coast of Tunis on March 1. At that time there were 29 Americans on the vessel.

The Patria at the time of her second escape had aboard at least one American, named Vincent Howell, according to the passenger list.

Captain Pierre DeChelle said he was standing on the bridge looking toward port when the first officer, at starboard exclaimed: "Look, Torpedo!" and about 200 feet off forward to starboard at an angle of 45 degrees, he saw the wake which told him a torpedo was approaching.

Passengers Saw Wake.

"We were going at full speed," said Captain DeChelle. It was too late to do anything. I estimate that the torpedo was traveling about 35 knits. It went by under the bow, missing the Patria by about ten feet. The weather was clear and many of the passengers were on deck and saw the wake."

whom they pretended to speak in suggesting a divided allegiance. I have never had the slightest doubt of what would happen when America called upon those of her citizens born in other countries to come to the support of the flag. Why, they will come with cheers; they will come with a momentum which will make us realize that America has once more been cried awake out of every sort of distemper and dream and distraction, and that any man who dares tamper with the spirit of America will be cast out of the confidence of a great nation upon the instant.

"I believe that a certain spiritual regeneration is going to come out of this thing. We have been thinking too much about our individual selves and too little about the country of which we constitute a part, and one of the services which you ladies are going to render is to show how, upon no summons at all, upon the mere offerings of the opportunity women will come together to render those inestimable services which are necessary if the country should get into any sort of trouble.

"God forbid that we should be drawn into war, but if we should be, America would seem once more to shake herself out of a dream to say: 'Did any man deem that we were asleep? Did any man deem that we could tamper with the honor or integrity of the United States?' And in the great voice of national enthusiasm which would be raised, all the world would stand once more thrilled to hear the voice of the New World asserting the standards of justice and liberty."

Copenhagen, (via London), May 2.—The Politiken's Berlin correspondent understands that the German reply to the American note will be delivered Tuesday or Wednesday.

New York, May 1.—Arthur E. Reimer, presidential candidate of the Socialist Labor party, in a speech at a meeting held to ratify his nomination here tonight, declared that, in the event of this country becoming involved in war, he and his followers would "block the manufacture and transportation of munitions to the troops in the field," and would tell the capitalistic classes to do the fighting themselves.

POSTMASTER J. E. LIGON WILL NOT BE REMOVED

His Job Has Been Saved for Him by Congressman Godwin.

Charges Against Lillington Man Dropped by Postoffice Department After Investigation of His Record—Godwin Home.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, May 1.—Postmaster J. E. Ligon, of Lillington, will not be removed from office. His job has been saved for him by Congressman Godwin who made a personal investigation of the charges filed against him and then showed the Postoffice Department that there was nothing against his appointee.

Some weeks ago the Postoffice Department notified Mr. Godwin that Ligon had ignored all official communications sent to him and, in the opinion of the department, had neglected his duties in other ways and that it had been decided to remove him from office. Mr. Godwin was asked to recommend a man to succeed Ligon.

The Sixth District Congressman, however, took a personal interest in Ligon and made a trip to Lillington to investigate personally the charges preferred against the postmaster. He was convinced, he says, that there was nothing to the charges, and today the department notified him that they had been dropped and that Ligon would continue to hand out mail to the patrons of the Lillington office.

Mr. Godwin, before leaving tonight for his district, where he will make several speeches, gave out the following statement:

"I have made a thorough investigation of the case of Postmaster J. E. Ligon at Lillington. The department made complaint because he had failed to respond to official communications and especially because he did not answer the final communication addressed to him on April 7th.

"I have looked into the records of the case and find that he made no response to the last communication. I made a trip to Lillington to investigate as to whether or not he has been rendering efficient service and find that the people there are solidly behind him. I was told by practically all the patrons of the office that his record as a postmaster had been entirely satisfactory.

"Mr. Ligon states that he did not receive the communication in question and, therefore, the department has decided to drop the charges and he will continue as postmaster." P. R. A.

Mexico for some other motive than to pursue the bandits."

The ambassador acted under general instructions from his government in renewing his request for a reply to General Carranza's note suggesting that the time had come to take up the question of withdrawal. He had heard nothing directly or indirectly from the conference at El Paso, and said his efforts with the State Department were independent of General Obregon's discussion with General Scott, although with the same object.

Dispatch Supplemental.

The dispatch sent to General Scott tonight was supplemental to one sent yesterday. It was prepared by Secretary Lansing and Counselor Polk of the State Department.

The reports of the conference are signed jointly by Generals Scott and Funston. So far as is known, they have contained no recommendations from the two officers, merely stating what had been said and asking for such further information as they thought necessary in order to pursue the discussions

There is little question that the additional instructions outline the administration's view in regard to withdrawal of the American troops so clearly that General Obregon will have no doubt as to what General Carranza will be told when a reply to his note is made.

WASHINGTON NEWS RECEIVED WITH GRAVITY IN JUAREZ.

El Paso, Texas, May 1.—Information from Washington that Secretary Baker had instructed Major Generals Scott and Funston to make it plain to General Obregon that any agreement reached at their conference here must not be based on any plans for any immediate withdrawal of American troops from Mexico was received with gravity in Juarez tonight. General Obregon refused to comment, saying he would await developments at his next conference. It was expected the meeting would take place tomorrow.

A. & M. STUDENTS IN WRECK ON NORFOLK & WESTERN ROAD

Professor Nelson Injured Along With Score of Other Persons.

Roanoke, Va., May 2.—Twenty persons wer slightly injured early last night when Norfolk & Western passenger train No. 2 struck a broken rail and was wrecked seven miles south of Natural Bridge, Va. A Pullman car, diner, and two day coaches were hurled down an embankment, but sustained little damage.

Professor Nelson, of Agricultural & Mechanical College, of North Carolina, and several students composing the A. & M. baseball club received minor injuries. Professor Nelson sustained cuts and bruises on the head, but otherwise was not seriously hurt.

A relief train and wreck crane were sent to the scene. The injured persons were brought here at 1 o'clock this morning and given medical attention at a local hospital.

The Jones Bill.

There is nothing in the body of the Jones bill promising independence to the Filipinos nor anything in any part of it saying a definite time for a declaration of their independence. The preamble merely states that it always has been the intention of the United States government to grant the islands their freedom and in order that they may be better prepared for it a larger degree of control over the domestic affairs is placed in their hands.

EARTH SHOCKS DEMOLISH BUILDINGS IN SAN JOSE.

San Jose, Costa Rica, May 1.—Twenty distinct earth shocks occurred here today while the people of the capital were in the midst of the May 1st festivities. A number of buildings, including churches and schools, were demolished. The people fled to the streets and squares, fearing the city was about to be destroyed.

Major E. J. Hale, of Fayetteville, is United States minister to Costa Rico, and has his headquarters and residence, of course, in San Jose, the capital of the country. As the Associated Press dispatch above fails to mention his name, it is naturally presumed that he suffered no serious injuries.

THOUSAND MEMBERS OF FRATERNAL ORDERS AT "HOME NIGHT" SERVICE

night affirm our allegiance to Christ and accept Him as our personal Saviour.' The name of the father, of the mother and of the children at home old enough to sign it were put on this card. The servants of the house were asked to sign it, and when they went to sleep at night this covenant bound them all together. What a great thing it would be if the homes in this city should thus be held for Him.

"The house of the righteous stands for two reasons. On the heavenward side the angels keep watch over it. On the earthly side the father is a Christian, his life is consistent, his prayer life is as it should be. His children call him a saint, for such he is.

"The mother is all that Christ would have her to be. When we were in Atlanta some years ago there came into the office of the governor two people; one a little girl, the other an old woman; and the child said: 'I want to see the governor.' 'That is the governor standing there. He will see you in a moment,' replied the governor's secretary, indicating Governor Terrell standing in the group. The governor went over to her. 'What can I do for you, dear?' he asked. Throwing back her curls, she opened wide her baby eyes and said: 'Governor, it is not for me; it is for this old lady. Her name is Mrs. Hackett, and she wants to talk to you about pardoning her boy.' This was said by a little lady of eleven who spoke with all the grace and savoir faire of a woman twice her age.

Illustrates Mother Love.

"In a voice choked with emotion, Mrs. Hackett began her tearful, scarcely audible story and presented her petition for clemency for her boy.

"'Governor, have mercy on me,' she began, and threw back her bonnet, showing a face wrinkled with age and furrowed and drawn by suffering, and give me back my boy.' Breaking down under the strain of talking to the governor, whom she had planned to see for months, the pleading mother gave way to her grief. The governor was visibly affected, and continued to stroke the curly hair of Mrs. Hockett's little Samaritan.

"'Give me back my boy. I am an old woman, going on seventy-nine, and I can not be here long. I know I am standing with one foot in the grave, and I do want to hear my boy—my baby—say to me, "Ma, I'm free." Let me go down on my knees to you and beg that you have mercy on a mother's breaking heart. I wanted to see you myself to beg you for my boy. During the last month I picked 500 pounds of cotton and made $2 to get on here to see you. I got here without a cent, and this little angel gave me a dollar—her all. I don't care if I have to walk back home, for I've seen you and told you of my boy.'

"What an awful thing it is for one to have such a mother and sin against her love.

"Not long ago there appeared in the New York papers the story of a little ragged newsboy who had lost his mother. In the tenderness of his affection for her he was determined that he would raise a stone to her memory.

Newsboy Buys Monument.

"His mother and he had kept house together and they had been all to each other, but now she was taken, and the little fellow's loss was irreparable. Getting a stone was no easy task, for his earnings were small; but love is strong. Going to a cutter's yard and finding that even the cheaper class of stones were far too expensive for him, he at length fixed upon a broken shaft of marble, part of the remains of an accident in the yard, and which the proprietor kindly named at such a low figure that it came within his means. There was much yet to be done, but the brave little chap was equal to it.

"The next day he conveyed the stone away on a little four-wheeled cart, and managed to have it put in position. The narrator, curious to know the last of the stone, visited the cemetery one afternoon, and he thus described what he saw and learned:

"'Here it is,' said the man in charge, and sure enough, there was our monument, at the head of one of the newer graves. I knew it at once. Just as it was when it left our yard.

I was going to say, until I got a little nearer to it and saw what the little chap had done. I tell you, boys, when I saw it there was something blurred my eyes, so's I couldn't read it at first. The little man had tried to keep the liens straight and evidently thought that capitals would make it look better and bigger, for nearly every letter was a capital. I copied it, and there it is; but you wan't to see it on the stone to appreciate it:

"MY mOTHER
S HEE DIED LAST WEEK
SHEE WAS ALL I HAD, SHEE
SED SHEAD Bee WaITING FuR—

and here, boys, the lettering stopped. After a while I went back to the man in charge, and asked him what further he knew of the little fellow who bought the stone.

"'Not much,' he said, 'not much. Didn't you notice a fresh little grave near the one with the stone? Well, that's where he is. He came here every afternoon for some time, working away at that stone, and one day I missed him, and then for several days. Then the man came out from the church that had buried the mother, and ordered the grave dug by her side. I asked if it was for the little chap. He said it was.'

"'The boy had sold all his papers one day, and was hurrying along the street out this way. There was a runaway team just above the crossing, and, well, he was run over, and lived but a day or two. He had in his hand, when he was picked up an old file sharpened down to a point, that he did all the lettering with. They said he seemed to be thinking only of that until he died for he kept saying, "I didn't get it done; but she'll know I meant to finish it, won't she? I'll tell her so, for she'll be waiting for me,' and, boys, he died with these words on his lips.'

"When the men in the cutter's yard heard the story of the boy, the next day they clubbed together, got a good stone, inscribed upon it the name of the newsboy (which they succeeded in getting from the superintendent of the Sunday school which the little fellow attended) and underneath it the touching words: 'He loved his mother.'

"What an awful thing it would be for a mother capable of drawing forth such affection as this to be false to her position. The house of the righteous shall stand when it is as God meant it should be."

RALEIGH'S FORMER CHIEF DEAD.

Junius H. Mullins Found Dead in Bed at His Home in Capital City.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 1.—Former Chief of Police Junius H. Mullins was found dead in his bed this morning. He had been in failing health for several months. He was 56 years old and served several times as chief of police, being held in especially high esteem. He was a past master of William G. Hill Lodge of Masons and one of the best posted Masons hereabouts. He was also an active Elk.

The Real Secret of Rejuvenating the Face

She holds the true secret of facial rejuvenation who has learned how to remove the dead skin particles as fast as they appear. It's a secret anyone may possess. The aged, faded, or discolored surface skin may be gradually absorbed, in an entirely safe and rational manner, by the nightly application of ordinary mercolized wax. Within a week or two the underlying skin, youthful and beautiful to behold, has taken the place of the discarded cuticle. So little of the old skin is absorbed each day there's no inconvenience at all, and no one suspects you are putting anything on your face. The mercolized wax, procurable at any drug store (an ounce is sufficient), is applied like cold cream. In the morning it is erased with soap and water. It's the best thing known for freckles, blackheads, pimples, moth patches, liver spots and fine surface wrinkles.

For the deeper wrinkles, an excellent recipe is: Powdered saxolite, 1 oz., dissolved in ½ pt. witch hazel. Bathing the face in the solution produces quick and wonderful results.

Why Not Get Rid of Eczema?

If your skin itches and burns with eczema or any such tormenting, unsightly skin disease, simply wash the sore places with Resinol Soap and hot water, dry, and apply a little Resinol Ointment. Usually the itching stops INSTANTLY, you no longer have to dig and scratch, sleep becomes possible, and healing begins. That is because the soothing, antiseptic Resinol medication arrests the action of the disease, and almost always restores the tortured, inflamed skin to perfect health—quickly, easily, and at little cost. Prescribed by doctors for over 20 years, and sold by every druggist.

What the Right Soap Does for Your Skin

Money cannot buy a purer, more cleansing toilet soap than Resinol Soap. And the healing Resinol medication in it helps to keep the complexion clear, fresh, and beautiful.
